

EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

THIRTEENTH YEAR. NO. 6.

EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO, MONDAY, JUNE 14, 1897.

TWO CENTS

THE BAD RED MEN.

A Report Made on the Indian Troubles at Tongue River.

WANTED TO FIGHT THE DEPUTIES.

The Leaders All Under Arrest—Captain Stouch Won the Murderers Over and They Are Placed in Jail Without a Shot Being Fired.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The Indian office has received from Captain Stouch of the Tongue River (Mont.) agency a detailed report of the recent trouble there arising from the murder of Settler John Hoover by David Stanley, a Cheyenne brave. After much diplomacy on the part of the agent, Stanley and his two accomplices, Sam Crow and Yellow Hair, are now lodged in jail at Miles City and will be tried by the civil courts.

Captain Stouch's description of the trouble is interesting in that it shows the constant conflict between the federal officers and the state authorities in arrests of Indians. In this case the presence of the sheriff and a large posse came near causing a conflict with the Indians.

The report states that soon after Hoover's body was found, on May 23, Captain Stouch sent for White Bull and some of the head men, being satisfied that it was his band which committed the murder. The old chief came in response to the summons and expressed his regret at the occurrence. Captain Stouch told him to tell the head men that the band would be held responsible for the murder unless they discovered the real culprit and brought him to the post. This they promised to do, and an old Indian named Badger made the prophetic remark: "I promise the agent that if I find out, and I will try to find out, I will tell him if it is my own son." It turned out to be the son of the old brave who killed Hoover.

This conference took place on May 27, and that same day Sheriff Gibb of Custer county and a band of 25 armed men rode up to the agency and informed Captain Stouch that they wanted the murderers. The agent replied that he was doing everything possible to discover and arrest the guilty Indians, and if not interfered with was confident that he would succeed.

The sheriff left four deputies and departed. That evening Captain Read, with two troops of cavalry, also arrived. Soon after this White Bull came into the agency and told Captain Stouch that Stanley had confessed to the murder, but would not surrender, having sent word that he would fight. At this the agent replied that he would not allow the fight, but that the chiefs must compel Stanley to give himself up. A courier was sent to recall the cavalry, which had started for the scene of the killing.

By this time the news that Stanley was to fight had spread and the Indians became very restless, the squaws and children took to the hills away from the agency, while the bucks rode in and stationed themselves on the hill-tops near the post buildings. They were all heavily armed and had their horses. They informed the agent they had come to see Stanley fight. Captain Stouch then said:

"Captain Read returned to the agency with his command. At this time Stanley was on a high hill in the rear of the agency and not a great distance from it; he had his horse and squaw with him, was in his war dress and paint and was heavily armed. He was all ready for the fight. It was the desire of Captain Read to charge and capture or kill him."

"At this juncture a greatly excited Indian on horseback approached with the information that Stanley did not want to fight the soldiers, but did want to fight the citizens, meaning the deputy sheriffs who were here. I told him to go back and tell Stanley I would not allow any one to fight him and for him to come in and surrender. Deputy Sheriff Smith told me he would attempt his capture if I would guarantee his safety from the other Indians; I told him I could not so guarantee, and moreover there would be no fight and that Stanley must be captured without bloodshed."

"I wanted this done as an example for those amongst the Indians who contemplate wrongdoing, and I knew perfectly well that if he were permitted to fight and was killed he would be a hero and brave in the eyes of the tribe whose example should be emulated by the young men."

Fire Causes a Panic.

BUFFALO, June 14.—A panic occurred in a Polish schoolhouse on Broadway. A church entertainment was being held and 1,500 people, principally women and children, were present. A hanging lamp fell and a cry of fire was raised. Men, women and children rushed, crowded and stumbled and trampled over each other in their efforts to reach the exit. No one was fatally injured, but a large number of women and children were bruised. The fire was soon extinguished.

Body Not Identified.

NEW YORK, June 14.—No one called at the morgue to identify the body of the old lady who shot herself on Saturday in the vestibule of Calvary church. That fact makes it seem likely that she did not live in New York or its vicinity.

ity, for all the newspapers published long accounts of the suicide. The suicide was probably 60 years old.

BIG PLANT PURCHASED.

Mingo Junction Works Absorbed by the Aetna-Standard.

BRIDGEPORT, O., June 14.—It is announced that negotiations have been concluded by the Junction Iron and Steel company of Mingo Junction for the absorption of that company by the Aetna-Standard Iron and Steel company of Bridgeport. The Junction company will go out of existence and stockholders in it will be paid $700,000 pro rata in Aetna-Standard new stock at 16 premium. The Aetna-Standard management will take charge of the Junction plant and operate it in connection with the Bridgeport plant, making it the basis for supplies of pig iron and Bessemer steel.

A new open-hearth steel plant will be erected at the Mingo Junction plant, to supply the Aetna-Standard finishing mills. The deal is the largest that has taken place here in many years and puts the Aetna-Standard at $3,000,000 of premium stock. A meeting of stockholders will be held this week to formally ratify the deal, a majority of the stock having agreed.

WON FIRST PRIZE.

The Opening of the Swiss-American Saengerfest at Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, June 14.—The Swiss-American saengerfest has opened here. The organization was formed at Sandusky last Thanksgiving day. Eight cities are represented in it, Cleveland, Pittsburg, Detroit, Cincinnati, Columbus, Sandusky, Akron and Wabash, Ind. It is the intention to extend it so as to include ultimately all the Swiss societies of the central states. Societies from six of the cities are present at the festival, 175 singers taking part.

The Schweizer mænnerchor of Cleveland won first prize. Helvetia mænnerchor, Toledo, second; Schweizer mænnerchor, Pittsburg, third; Grueblin Saenger club, Akron, fourth; Helvetia, Columbus, fifth, and Schweizer mænnerchor, Detroit, seventh. Today will be devoted to a business session and sight seeing.

THIEVES CRY FIRE.

Frighten a Family From Their Rooms and Rob Them.

MASSILLON, O., June 14.—Nine masked men entered the farm residence of the Bender family, two and one-half miles west of this city, during a terrific thunderstorm, and robbed them of between $3,000 and $4,000. After having gained an entrance they alarmed the family by loud cries of fire. The family sprang from their beds, and ran downstairs.

Mrs. Ricksecker, the housekeeper, was the first to reach the scene and was knocked insensible, bound and gagged, as were the other members of the family, all of whom are aged people. At the point of a revolver the robbers forced the eldest son to tell where the money was kept. After securing the booty the robbers drove hastily away. A sister suffered a nervous shock and doubts of her recovery are entertained.

A SEVERE HAILSTORM.

A Church Unroofed During Services. Fruit Greatly Damaged.

CALDWELL, O., June 14.—A terrific wind and hail storm passed over this place. Many buildings were unroofed and hundreds of windows were broken by the hail stones, which were nearly as large as hen's eggs. The roof of the Free Methodist church at Perryopolis was blown off while a meeting was in progress, but no one was injured.

The hail stripped orchards of their leaves and did an immense amount of damage to crops. But meager information can be secured from points east of here on account of the lines being down.

The Money Goes to Missions.

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O., June 14.—The suit brought by Reason Winrod and others against the executor of the will of Samuel Winrod, which was on trial here the past week with 50 witnesses on hand, ended in a verdict for the defendant. The terms of the will of the eccentric old bachelor gave $10,000 to the mission society of the Methodist Episcopal church, and the plaintiffs, who are heirs, set up that Winrod was incapacitated from making a will because of old age, but under the verdict the will stands. The case was hotly contested.

Four Arrested For Murder.

WARREN, O., June 14.—Louis Yura, Charles Fenton, Paddy Nicholas and Ira Evans, of this city, have been arrested, charged with the murder of Isaac Hill, a bachelor farmer, at Farmington, about two weeks ago. Yura has confessed that he did the shooting. The motive was robbery.

A New Candidate For Governor.

UPPER SANDUSKY, O., June 14.—Another Democratic candidate for governor is in the field. A boom for Judge Allen Smalley was launched at a meeting here. The meeting endorsed the Chicago platform, and state delegates were pledged to vote only for free silver men.

The New York at Newport News.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., June 14.—The cruiser New York has arrived here and came to anchor in the river opposite the city.

TRIED TO KILL FAURE.

Attempt Made to Assassinate the French President.

EXCITEMENT OVER THE AFFAIR.

The Official Detective Rushed Forward and Caught a Man—The Crowd Mistook Him for an Anarchist and Tried to Lynch Him.

PARIS, June 14.—An attempt has been made to assassinate Felix Faure, president of the French republic, while he was en route to Long Champs to witness the grand prix. While M. Faure's carriage was passing a thick net near La Cascade restaurant, in the Bois de Boulogne, a bomb, which subsequently proved to be a piece of tubing about 6 inches long and two inches in diameter, with a thickness of half an inch, charged with powder and swan shot, exploded.

No one was injured by the explosion. A man in the crowd, suspected as the prime mover, was arrested. He gave his name as Gallet and made only the briefest replies to questions put to him by the police. Gallet said that he had no occupation, but resided at Levallois-Perret. The police are making a thorough search of his lodgings. He is believed to be insane, for he shouted as the carriage passed along so loudly as to attract general attention in the crowd. The police have also made another arrest, in this case a youth, but it is thought probable that the actual culprit escaped.

The roadway had been clear for some time. The presidential escort was led by two dragons holding their pistols forward in the most threatening way. Then came a large body of dragons, and after them, in the midst of a cloud of dust, the president's open carriage with outriders. The president was accompanied by his wife, while in another carriage were his two daughters, Mlle Lucie Faure and Mme. Berge.

The horses attached to M. Faure's carriage reared wildly at the explosion, but were whipped on by Monjarret's vigorous arm. Rousteau, the detective, who is always with the president, rushed forward and grappled with a man, but was immediately set upon by a half dozen persons in the crowd, probably accomplices of the would-be assassin. The crowd mistook the detective for an anarchist and were about to lynch him. He was beaten, kicked and spat upon, and when rescued by the police was bleeding and unconscious from a terrible beating.

The news of the attempt spread like wildfire through the city, and when M. Faure returned to the Elysee the streets along the route where it was known he would drive were crowded with people who cheered him vociferously.

The bomb was a clumsy made affair, to which a piece of fuse was attached, and the fuse was probably lighted by a paper fixed in the end of a stick as soon as the head of the percussion came into view. The presumption is that at the moment the fuse was lighted the culprit fled, and in any case the bomb could not have done much harm.

In the thicket where the police found the remnants of the bomb they found also a pistol, upon which were engraved the words "Mort A Felix Faure" and the names Alsace-Lorraine and Cologne. Near the pistol was a small dagger bearing a similar threatening inscription, and a few feet away the police found a newspaper with a cartoon grossly insulting to the president. This contained an offensive inscription hinting at the execution of M. Faure.

An official who was with President Faure at the time said:

"When the report was heard a dense cloud of smoke rose from the thicket and there was consternation until it was found that no one had been injured. The police sprang forward, but found the thicket deserted. When the crowd saw one of the policemen holding the bomb they jumped to the conclusion that he was the perpetrator of the outrage and handled him roughly, clubbing him with heavy walking sticks and umbrellas until his comrades rescued him, badly bruised and covered with blood. The president's cortege then proceeded to the race course."

URGED AN INVESTIGATION.

The Conservative Leader Says Spain Must Abandon Her Policy.

MADRID, June 14.—At a meeting of the dissident Conservatives Saturday, Senor Silvela, the leader of the party, declared that the Cannovas ministry had signed the death warrant of parliamentary government. He earnestly advocated an investigation into the affairs in Cuba, the development of the material interests of the island, as well as a reform in its administration.

In conclusion he expressed the opinion that it was now absolutely necessary for Spain to abandon her policy of international isolation.

Attempted to Wreck a Train.

NEW YORK, June 14.—A train of 11 cars on the Seaboard railroad, crowded with passengers from Coney Island, crashed into an obstruction on the tracks near the Fifth avenue tunnel. The train was running slowly at the time and fortunately no serious damage was done. It was found that several heavy steel rails had been placed across the tracks and strongly braced with several other rails, and it appeared to the detectives, who were at once put on the case, and to the train people to be a deliberate attempt to wreck the train.

VIEWS ON IMMIGRATION.

American Federation of Labor Asks Opinions of Labor Unions.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—President Gompers and the other members of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor have sent a greeting on the immigration question to affiliated unions in order by this means to obtain the sense of organized labor on the immigration question in its several phases.

The subject has been divided in such a manner so that each member may have a fair opportunity to vote either in favor of or opposed to the entire subject of immigration restriction or upon the measure and scope of such restriction. The following are the questions submitted:

First—Does your organization favor amending the laws of the United States to restrict immigration more than it is now restricted?

Second—Does your organization favor a provision in the law guarding against criminal and pauper elements entering into the United States?

Third—Should the foreign consular service and our immigration department be entrusted with greater powers to enforce immigration laws?

Fourth—Should the violation of the alien contract labor law by employers be punishable by imprisonment?

Fifth—Should the steamship companies be held responsible for a term of years for the character of their passengers?

Sixth—Should a stricter civil and educational test be enforced as to qualification for naturalization?

Seventh—Should every immigrant be compelled to declare his intention to become a citizen of the United States?

What other provisions does your organization favor and suggest, if any, to further the restriction of immigration?

Organizations which expect to be represented at the Nashville convention of the A. F. of L. are urged to instruct their delegates so that the convention may fully express the real judgment of organized labor on the subject, and unions which will not be represented are directed to discuss and vote on the question and return the vote to headquarters not later than Oct. 30, 1897.

ARE WARNED IN TIME.

Treasury Department Gets Out After a Filibustering Expedition.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The treasury department has received by reference from the secretary of state a communication from the Spanish minister to the effect that he has information that an important filibustering expedition is being organized on the coast of Florida, and asks that steps be taken by the government to frustrate it. All collectors and masters of the patrol fleet on the Florida coast were instructed to be on the alert.

A carload of arms left Jacksonville Friday morning by the Florida East Coast railroad and passed near Smyrna, southbound. A second carload of rifles and dynamite left Jacksonville Saturday morning on the regular freight train for the probable purpose of being transferred to some vessel on the east coast, probably the yacht Valusia, which has been engaged to transfer these munitions from the railways to the vessel destined for Cuba.

STRUCK BY A CYCLONE.

Many Buildings Wrecked and Other Damage at Elkins, W. Va.

ELKINS, W. Va., June 14.—A severe cyclone has struck this town and did considerable damage. Trees were uprooted, roofs blown off, houses lifted from their foundations and the walls of new buildings under construction were wrecked. The house occupied by Henry Ray was blown from its foundation and his wife and child were seriously injured.

The damage was principally in the residence portion of the city. Trees and outbuildings on Senator Elkins' grounds were badly damaged. Posten's new opera house, under construction, was completely demolished.

WANT TO ANNEX THESSALY.

LONDON, June 14.—The Times' correspondent at Constantinople says: "The sultan has appealed to Emperor Nicholas and Emperor William to support his claim to annex Thessaly to the Ottoman empire. This proceeding highly displeases the ambassadors of the other powers, who are expected to mark their displeasure by refusing to negotiate the other points in Turkish demand until the evacuation demanded is settled."

Peace Conference Satisfactory.

LONDON, June 14.—It is understood that Saturday's peace conference at Constantinople was regarded as satisfactory by the ambassadors, but the sultan's direct appeal to Emperor William is again delaying matters. The Turks have already begun to gather the harvest in Thessaly.

Killed Her Husband.

LITTLE ROCK, June 14.—Near Tillar, Ark., Mrs. P. A. Wilson killed her husband, beating his brains out with a hammer. Wilson was a well-known lumber man and a brother of T. O. Wilson, formerly president of the T. O. Wilson Lumber company of Tillar. After committing the deed Mrs. Wilson surrendered to an officer.

IT OCCUPIES HIS TIME.

President McKinley Worried Over the Cuban Question.

NO CHOICE FOR SPANISH MISSION.

The President Spent a Quiet Sunday at Chattanooga—He Goes to Church—The Party Has Left For Asheville, N. C., Where They Will Spend the Day.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., June 14.—After a week of travel, sight seeing, speech-making and social duties, somewhat onerous though pleasant in performance, President McKinley, Mrs. McKinley, the more immediate official staff had a Sabbath of restfulness. The run from Nashville was made very slowly purposely, in order that the president and his wife would not be disturbed. They breakfasted in their car and immediately after, much to the regret of many prominent citizens, who wished to meet the chief executive in the morning, drove to the residence of Hon. H. Clay Evans, United States commissioner of pensions.

The president, accompanied by ex-Postmaster General Key and Mr. Evans, went to the First Methodist church. Mrs. McKinley did not accompany him. The pastor of the church, Dr. Westhafer, preached.

At the close of the services the president returned to Mr. Evans' home, where he quietly rested and later Messdames McKinley and Evans, the president and commissioner, drove to Orchard Knob, one of the crucial points in the battle of Mission Ridge. They returned in time for dinner, after which the president gave a short reception in the Read house. The reception, owing to the sacredness of the day, was not prolonged beyond 20 minutes.

That Chattanooga did not give greater demonstrations of hospitality and more earnest manifestations of welcome, was due solely to the desire of its people to fall in entirely with the wishes of the chief magistrate and the fact that it was the Sabbath.

There is absolutely nothing new to say in regard to the Spanish mission, and as this in a great measure includes the Cuban question, no policy on the latter question can be given. A gentleman close to the administration said to your correspondent: "The question of the Cuban policy occupies the president day and night. The situation is an embarrassing one thought not an unusual one. I think I am fully justified in saying that the offer of the mission has not been officially made to anyone. Therefore, to say that General Cox or anyone else has declined it is not true. Of course you know Mr. Dawes of Chicago brought word from General Cox that he was busy writing reminiscences, or rather a history, of his connection with the war, and in connection with that and other reasons was not willing to go. Here lies the embarrassment. First-class men, properly qualified and eminently fitted for this most important post, do not care to appear in the light of an ulterior choice. The president feels that it is as much the duty of the patriot to accept service to prevent war as it is to enter an army for the prosecution of one."

There is a possibility that Mr. McKinley will decide to select some gentleman who, well known in his section and to the appointing power as a proper man to succeed Minister Taylor, is not as well known to the people or the politicians as the gentlemen whose names have been suggested in connection with this mission.

The presidential train pulled out and went three miles to Sherman's hills, where it remained for some time, the purpose being to avoid the heat of the city.

The special, with the presidential party aboard then left Sherman Heights for Asheville, N. C., where the day will be spent.

KILLED FIVE PERSONS.

A Drunken Negro Shoots Everybody He Meets—A Mob In Pursuit.

MERIDIAN, Miss., June 14.—News has reached here of the murder of five negroes in the extreme northwestern portion of Kemper county. A negro man named Sibley, while crazy drunk on blind tiger whisky, secured a gun and started out to kill every person he met. The first he came across happened to be five negroes, three women and two children. The fiend shot them down and left them dead where they fell. He also shot at six other negroes, who narrowly escaped.

As soon as the bloody work of Sibley was discovered the most intense excitement prevailed and a mob was organized to lynch the murderer. Sibley took to the woods, carrying his shotgun with him, and at last accounts the mob had surrounded him and a bloody fight was imminent. Word comes from DeKalb that the sheriff of Kemper county has gone to the scene with a large posse.

Killed In a Cyclone.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, June 14.—A cyclone struck Saint Vincent island, off the Windward group, seriously damaging some of the public buildings; injuring a number of persons at Georgetown, capsizing a sloop and drowning three of the crew.

EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

THIRTEENTH YEAR. NO. 6.

EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO, MONDAY, JUNE 14, 1897.

TWO CENTS

THE BAD RED MEN.

A Report Made on the Indian Troubles at Tongue River.

WANTED TO FIGHT THE DEPUTIES.

The Leaders All Under Arrest—Captain Stouch Won the Murderers Over and They Are Placed in Jail Without a Shot Being Fired.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The Indian office has received from Capt. Stouch of the Tongue River (Mont.) agency a detailed report of the recent trouble there arising from the murder of Settler John Hoover by David Stanley, a Cheyenne brave. After much diplomacy on the part of the agent, Stanley and his two accomplices, Sam Crow and Yellow Hair, are now lodged in jail at Miles City and will be tried by the civil courts.

Captain Stouch's description of the trouble is interesting in that it shows the constant conflict between the federal officers and the state authorities in arrests of Indians. In this case the presence of the sheriff and a large posse came near causing a conflict with the Indians.

The report states that soon after Hoover's body was found, on May 23, Captain Stouch sent for White Bull and some of the head men, being satisfied that it was his band which committed the murder. The old chief came in response to the summons and expressed his regret at the occurrence. Captain Stouch told him to tell the head men that the band would be held responsible for the murder unless they discovered the real culprit and brought him to the post. This they promised to do, and an old Indian named Badger made the prophetic remark: "I will try to find out, if I find out, if it is my own son." It turned out to be the son of the old brave who killed Hoover.

This conference took place on May 27, and that same day Sheriff Gibb of Custer county and a band of 25 armed men rode up to the agency and informed Captain Stouch that they wanted the murderers. The agent replied that he was doing everything possible to discover and arrest the guilty Indians, and if not interfered with was confident that he would succeed.

The sheriff left four deputies and departed. That evening Captain Read, with two troops of cavalry, also arrived. Soon after this White Bull came into the agency and told Captain Stouch that Stanley had confessed to the murder, but would not surrender, having sent word that he would fight. At this the agent replied that he would not allow the fight, but that the chiefs must compel Stanley to give himself up. A courier was sent to recall the cavalry, which had started for the scene of the killing.

By this time the news that Stanley was to fight had spread and the Indians became very restless, the squaws and children took to the hills away from the agency, while the bucks rode in and stationed themselves on the hill-tops near the post buildings. They were all heavily armed and had their horses. They informed the agent they had come to see Stanley fight. Captain Stouch then said:

"Captain Read returned to the agency with his command. At this time Stanley was on a high hill in the rear of the agency and not a great distance from it; he had his horse and squaw with him, in his war dress and paint and was heavily armed. He was all ready for the fight. It was the desire of Captain Read to charge and capture or kill him."

"At this juncture a greatly excited Indian on horseback approached with the information that Stanley did not want to fight the soldiers, but did want to fight the citizens, meaning the deputy sheriffs who were here. I told him to go back and tell Stanley I would not allow any one to fight him and for him to come in and surrender. Deputy Sheriff Smith told me he would attempt his capture if I would guarantee his safety from the other Indians; I told him I could not so guarantee, and moreover there would be no fight and that Stanley must be captured without bloodshed."

"I wanted this done as an example for those amongst the Indians who contemplate wrongdoing, and I knew perfectly well that if he were permitted to fight and was killed he would be a hero and brave in the eyes of the tribe whose example should be emulated by the young men."

Fire Causes a Panic.

BUFFALO, June 14.—A panic occurred in a Polish schoolhouse on Broadway. A church entertainment was being held and 1,500 people, principally women and children, were present. A hanging lamp fell and a cry of fire was raised. Men, women and children rushed, crowded and stumbled and trampled over each other in their effort to reach the exit. No one was fatally injured, but a large number of women and children were bruised. The fire was soon extinguished.

Body Not Identified.

NEW YORK, June 14.—No one called at the morgue to identify the body of the old lady who shot herself on Saturday in the vestibule of Calvary church. That fact makes it seem likely that she did not live in New York or its vicinity.

ity, for all the newspapers published long accounts of the suicide. The suicide was probably 60 years old.

BIG PLANT PURCHASED.

Mingo Junction Works Absorbed by the Aetna-Standard.

BRIDGEPORT, O., June 14.—It is announced that negotiations have been concluded by the Junction Iron and Steel company of Mingo Junction for the absorption of that company by the Aetna-Standard Iron and Steel company of Bridgeport. The Junction company will go out of existence and stockholders in it will be paid $700,000 pro rata in Aetna-Standard new stock at 16 premium. The Aetna-Standard management will take charge of the Junction plant and operate it in connection with the Bridgeport plant, making it the basis for supplies of pig iron and Bessemer steel.

A new open-hearth steel plant will be erected at the Mingo Junction plant, to supply the Aetna-Standard finishing mills. The deal is the largest that has taken place here in many years and puts the Aetna-Standard at $3,000,000 of premium stock. A meeting of stockholders will be held this week to formally ratify the deal, a majority of the stock having agreed.

WON FIRST PRIZE.

The Opening of the Swiss-American Saengerfest at Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, June 14.—The Swiss-American saengerfest has opened here. The organization was formed at Sandusky last Thanksgiving day. Eight cities are represented in it, Cleveland, Pittsburg, Detroit, Cincinnati, Columbus, Sandusky, Akron and Wabash, Ind. It is the intention to extend it so as to include ultimately all the Swiss societies of the central states. Societies from six of the cities are present at the festival, 175 singers taking part.

The Schweizer mænnerchor of Cleveland won first prize. Helvetia mænnerchor, Toledo, second; Schweizer mænnerchor, Pittsburg, third; Græbelin Sænger club, Akron, fourth; Helvetia, Columbus, fifth, and Schweizer mænnerchor, Detroit, seventh. Today will be devoted to a business session and sight seeing.

THIEVES CRY FIRE.

Frighten a Family From Their Rooms and Rob Them.

MASSILLON, O., June 14.—Nine masked men entered the farm residence of the Bender family, two and one half miles west of this city, during a terrific thunderstorm, and robbed them of between $3,000 and $4,000. After having gained an entrance they alarmed the family by loud cries of fire. The family sprang from their beds, and ran downstairs.

Mrs. Ricksecker, the housekeeper, was the first to reach the scene and was knocked insensible, bound and gagged, as were the other members of the family, all of whom are aged people. At the point of a revolver the robbers forced the eldest son to tell where the money was kept. After securing the booty the robbers drove hastily away. A sister suffered a nervous shock and doubts of her recovery are entertained.

A SEVERE HAILSTORM.

A Church Unroofed During Services. Fruit Greatly Damaged.

CALDWELL, O., June 14.—A terrific wind and hail storm passed over this place. Many buildings were unroofed and hundreds of windows were broken by the hail stones, which were nearly as large as hen's eggs. The roof of the Free Methodist church at Perryopolis was blown off while a meeting was in progress, but no one was injured.

The hail stripped orchards of their leaves and did an immense amount of damage to crops. But meager information can be secured from points east of here on account of the lines being down.

The Money Goes to Missions.

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O., June 14.—The suit brought by Reason Winrod and others against the executor of the will of Samuel Winrod, which was on trial here the past week with 50 witnesses on hand, ended in a verdict for the defendant. The terms of the will of the eccentric old bachelor gave $10,000 to the mission society of the Methodist Episcopal church, and the plaintiffs, who are heirs, set up that Winrod was incapacitated from making a will because of old age, but under the verdict the will stands. The case was hotly contested.

Four Arrested For Murder.

WARREN, O., June 14.—Louis Yura, Charles Fenton, Paddy Nicholas and Ira Evans, of this city, have been arrested, charged with the murder of Isaac Hill, a bachelor farmer, at Farmington, about two weeks ago. Yura has confessed that he did the shooting. The motive was robbery.

A New Candidate For Governor.

UPPER SANDUSKY, O., June 14.—Another Democratic candidate for governor is in the field. A boom for Judge Allen Smalley was launched at a meeting here. The meeting endorsed the Chicago platform, and state delegates were pledged to vote only for free silver men.

The New York at Newport News.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., June 14.—The cruiser New York has arrived here and came to anchor in the river opposite the city.

TRIED TO KILL FAURE.

Attempt Made to Assassinate the French President.

EXCITEMENT OVER THE AFFAIR.

The Official Detective Rushed Forward and Caught a Man—The Crowd Mistook Him for an Anarchist and Tried to Lynch Him.

PARIS, June 14.—An attempt has been made to assassinate Felix Faure, president of the French republic, while he was en route to Long Champs to witness the grand prix. While M. Faure's carriage was passing a thick net near La Cascade restaurant, in the Bois de Boulogne, a bomb, which subsequently proved to be a piece of tubing about 6 inches long and two inches in diameter, with a thickness of half an inch, charged with powder and swan shot, exploded.

No one was injured by the explosion. A man in the crowd, suspected as the prime mover, was arrested. He gave his name as Gallet and made only the briefest replies to questions put to him by the police. Gallet said that he had no occupation, but resided at Levallois-Perret. The police are making a thorough search of his lodgings. He is believed to be insane, for he shouted as the carriage passed along so loudly as to attract general attention in the crowd. The police have also made another arrest, in this case a youth, but it is thought probable that the actual culprit escaped.

The roadway had been clear for some time. The presidential escort was led by two dragoons holding their pistols forward in the most threatening way. Then came a large body of dragoons, and after them, in the midst of a cloud of dust, the president's open carriage with outriders. The president was accompanied by his wife, while in another carriage were his two daughters, Mlle Lucie Faure and Mlle. Berge.

The horses attached to M. Faure's carriage reared wildly at the explosion, but were whipped on by Monjaret's vigorous arm. Rousteaux, the detective, who is always with the president, rushed forward and grappled with a man, but was immediately set upon by a half dozen persons in the crowd, probably accomplices of the would-be assassin. The crowd mistook the detective for an anarchist and were about to lynch him. He was beaten, kicked and spat upon, and when rescued by the police was bleeding and unconscious from a terrible beating.

The news of the attempt spread like wildfire through the city, and when M. Faure returned to the Elysee the streets along the route where it was known he would drive were crowded with people who cheered him vociferously.

The bomb was a clumsy made affair, to which a piece of fuse was attached, and the fuse was probably lighted by a paper fixed in the end of a stick as soon as the head of the percussion came into moment. The fuse was lighted the culprit fled, and in any case the bomb could not have done much harm.

In the thicket where the police found the remnants of the bomb they found also a pistol, upon which were engraved the words "Mort A Felix Faure" and the names Alsace-Lorraine and Cologne. Near the pistol was a small dagger bearing a similar threatening inscription, and a few feet away the police found a newspaper with a cartoon grossly insulting to the president. This contained an offensive inscription hinting at the execution of M. Faure.

An official who was with President Faure at the time said:

"When the report was heard a dense cloud of smoke rose from the thicket and there was consternation until it was found that no one had been injured. The police sprang forward, but found the thicket deserted. When the crowd saw one of the policemen holding the bomb they jumped to the conclusion that he was the perpetrator of the outrage and handled him roughly, clubbing him with heavy walking sticks and umbrellas until his comrades rescued him, badly bruised and covered with blood. The president's cortege then proceeded to the race course."

URGED AN INVESTIGATION.

The Conservative Leader Says Spain Must Abandon Her Policy.

MADRID, June 14.—At a meeting of the resident Conservatives Saturday, Senor Silvela, the leader of the party, declared that the death warrant of parliamentary government. He earnestly advocated an investigation into the affairs in Cuba, the development of the material interests of the island, as well as a reform in its administration. In conclusion he expressed the opinion that it was now absolutely necessary for Spain to abandon her policy of international isolation.

Attempted to Wreck a Train.

NEW YORK, June 14.—A train of 11 cars on the Seaboard railroad, crowded with passengers from Coney Island, crashed into an obstruction on the tracks near the Fifth avenue tunnel. The train was running slowly at the time and fortunately no serious damage was done. It was found that several heavy steel rails had been placed across the tracks and strongly braced with several other rails, and it appeared to the detectives, who were at once put on the case, and to the train people to be a deliberate attempt to wreck the train.

VIEWS ON IMMIGRATION.

American Federation of Labor Asks Opinions of Labor Unions.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—President Gompers and the other members of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor have sent a greeting on the immigration question to affiliated unions in order by this means to obtain the sense of organized labor on the immigration question in its several phases. The subject has been divided in such a manner so that each member may have a fair opportunity to vote either in favor of or opposed to the entire subject of immigration restriction or upon the measure and scope of such restriction. The following are the questions submitted:

First—Does your organization favor amending the laws of the United States to restrict immigration more than it is now restricted?

Second—Does your organization favor a provision in the law guarding against criminal and pauper elements entering into the United States?

Third—Should the foreign consular service and our immigration department be entrusted with greater powers to enforce immigration laws?

Fourth—Should the violation of the alien contract labor law by employers be punishable by imprisonment?

Fifth—Should the steamship companies be held responsible for a term of years for the character of their passengers?

Sixth—Should a stricter civil and educational test be enforced as to qualification for naturalization?

Seventh—Should every immigrant be compelled to declare his intention to become a citizen of the United States?

What other provisions does your organization favor and suggest, if any, to further the restriction of immigration?

Organizations which expect to be represented at the Nashville convention of the A. F. of L. are urged to instruct their delegates so that the convention may fully express the real judgment of organized labor on the subject, and unions which will not be represented are directed to discuss and vote on the question and return the vote to headquarters not later than Oct. 30, 1897.

ARE WARNED IN TIME.

Treasury Department Gets Out After a Filibustering Expedition.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The treasury department has received by reference from the secretary of state a communication from the Spanish minister to the effect that he has information that an important filibustering expedition is being organized on the coast of Florida, and asks that steps be taken by the government to frustrate it. All collectors and masters of the patrol fleet on the Florida coast were instructed to be on the alert.

A carload of arms left Jacksonville Friday morning by the Florida East Coast railroad and passed near Smyrna, southbound. A second carload of rifles and dynamite left Jacksonville Saturday morning on the regular freight train for the probable purpose of being transferred to some vessel on the east coast, probably the yacht Valusia, which has been engaged to transfer these munitions from the railways to the vessel destined for Cuba.

STRUCK BY A CYCLONE.

Many Buildings Wrecked and Other Damage at Elkins, W. Va.

ELKINS, W. Va., June 14.—A severe cyclone has struck this town and did considerable damage. Trees were uprooted, roofs blown off, houses lifted from their foundations and the walls of new buildings under construction were wrecked. The house occupied by Henry Ray was blown from its foundation and his wife and child were seriously injured.

The damage was principally in the residence portion of the city. Trees and outbuildings on Senator Elkins' grounds were badly damaged. Posten's new opera house, under construction, was completely demolished.

Want to Annex Thessaly.

LONDON, June 14.—The Times' correspondent at Constantinople says: "The sultan has appealed to Emperor Nicholas and Emperor William to support his claim to annex Thessaly to the Ottoman empire. This proceeding highly displeases the ambassadors of the other powers, who are expected to mark their displeasure by refusing to negotiate the other points in Turkish demand until the evacuation demanded is settled."

Peace Conference Satisfactory.

LONDON, June 14.—It is understood that Saturday's peace conference at Constantinople was regarded as satisfactory by the ambassadors, but the sultan's direct appeal to Emperor William is again delaying matters. The Turks have already begun to gather the harvest in Thessaly.

Killed Her Husband.

LITTLE ROCK, June 14.—Near Tillar, Ark., Mrs. P. A. Wilson killed her husband, beating his brains out with a hammer. Wilson was a well-known lumber man and a brother of T. O. Wilson, formerly president of the T. O. Wilson Lumber company of Tillar. After committing the deed Mrs. Wilson surrendered to an officer.

IT OCCUPIES HIS TIME.

President McKinley Worried Over the Cuban Question.

NO CHOICE FOR SPANISH MISSION.

The President Spent a Quiet Sunday at Chattanooga—He Goes to Church—The Party Has Left For Asheville, N. C., Where They Will Spend the Day.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., June 14.—After a week of travel, sight seeing, speech-making and social duties, somewhat onerous though pleasant in performance, President McKinley, Mrs. McKinley, the more immediate official staff had a Sabbath of restfulness. The run from Nashville was made very slowly purposely, in order that the president and his wife would not be disturbed. They breakfasted in their car and immediately after, much to the regret of many prominent citizens, who wished to meet the chief executive in the morning, drove to the residence of Hon. H. Clay Evans, United States commissioner of pensions.

The president, accompanied by ex-Postmaster General Key and Mr. Evans, went to the First Methodist church. Mrs. McKinley did not accompany him. The pastor of the church, Dr. Westhafer, preached.

At the close of the services the president returned to Mr. Evans' home, where he quietly rested and later Messrs. McKinley and Evans, the president and commissioner, drove to Orchard Knob, one of the crucial points in the battle of Mission Ridge. They returned in time for dinner, after which the president gave a short reception in the Read house. The reception, owing to the sacredness of the day, was not prolonged beyond 20 minutes.

That Chattanooga did not give greater demonstrations of hospitality and more earnest manifestations of welcome, was due solely to the desire of its people to fall in entirely with the wishes of the chief magistrate and the fact that it was the Sabbath.

There is absolutely nothing new to say in regard to the Spanish mission, and as this in a great measure includes the Cuban question, no policy on the latter question can be given. A gentleman close to the administration said to your correspondent: "The question of the Cuban policy occupies the president day and night. The situation is an embarrassing one thought not an unusual one. I think I am fully justified in saying that the offer of the mission has not been officially made to anyone. Therefore, to say that General Cox or anyone else has declined it is not true. Of course you know Mr. Dawes of Chicago brought word from General Cox that he was busy writing reminiscences, or rather a history, of his connection with the war, and in connection with that and other reasons was not willing to go. Here lies the embarrassment. First-class men, properly qualified and eminently fitted for this most important post, do not care to appear in the light of an ulterior choice. The president feels that it is as much the duty of the patriot to accept service to prevent war as it is to enter an army for the prosecution of one."

There is a possibility that Mr. McKinley will decide to select some gentleman who, well known in his section and to the appointing power as a proper man to succeed Minister Taylor, is not as well known to the people or the politicians as the gentlemen whose names have been suggested in connection with this mission.

The presidential train pulled out and went three miles to Sherman's hills, where it remained for some time, the purpose being to avoid the heat of the city.

The special, with the presidential party aboard then left Sherman Heights for Asheville, N. C., where the day will be spent.

KILLED FIVE PERSONS.

A Drunken Negro Shoots Everybody He Meets—A Mob in Pursuit.

MERIDIAN, Miss., June 14.—News has reached here of the murder of five negroes in the extreme northwestern portion of Kemper county. A negro man named Sibley, while crazy drunk on blind tiger whisky, secured a gun and started out to kill every person he met. The first he came across happened to be five negroes, three women and two children. The fiend shot them down and left them dead where they fell. He also shot at six other negroes, who narrowly escaped.

As soon as the bloody work of Sibley was discovered the most intense excitement prevailed and a mob was organized to lynch the murderer. Sibley took to the woods, carrying his shotgun with him, and at last accounts the mob had surrounded him and a bloody fight was imminent. Word comes from DeKalb that the sheriff of Kemper county has gone to the scene with a large posse.

Killed In a Cyclone.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, June 14.—A cyclone struck Saint Vincent island, off the Windward group, seriously damaging some of the public buildings; injuring a number of persons at Georgetown, capsizing a sloop and drowning three of the crew.

STILL ON SUGAR.
Senate Discusses That Schedule Today.
House Doing No Business.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The sugar schedule of the tariff bill is expected to continue to be the subject of consideration in the senate for the next day or two. The Hawaiian treaty and anti-trust amendments are still to be disposed of, and both will excite considerable debate. With the sugar question settled the agricultural schedule, which has been partially considered, will be again taken up, and will in time be followed by the tobacco schedule if in the meantime the Republicans agree upon its provisions.

The Republican managers hope to also dispose of the spirit and cotton schedules during the week and possibly to make some progress with the hemp and flax provisions. There will be no great amount of debate on either cotton or spirits. There was at one time talk of an attempt to add compensatory duties on cotton goods because of the duty fixed on raw cotton, but this is understood to have been abandoned, if very seriously contemplated. The Democrats do not find the present schedule objectionable except in minor details, and will allow it to go through with but little discussion.

The Republican managers now hope that the debate in the senate will be concluded within the next two weeks, notwithstanding less than one-third of the bill has been gone over. They have secured an agreement with the Democrats that the sessions shall begin at 11 o'clock each day instead of 12 after Wednesday next.

The house will probably continue its policy of adjourning from Monday over to Thursday and from Thursday until the following Monday. No business will be done and the sessions today and Thursday will be merely perfunctory.

CLAIMS HIS INNOCENCE.
The Man Under Arrest for Trying to Blow Up Gov. Smith.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., June 14.—Since the explosion at the Soldiers' home it has developed that the life of Major Shockley, the president of the Soldiers' home, was threatened by Joseph W. Oliver, the veteran under arrest for placing the dynamite bomb near the Smith residence. Oliver's pension has been held back and he made the threat in the presence of Dilwyn Packer, Shockley's chief clerk.

At a recent pay day the home officers learned of a plot to hold up the paymaster in the woods north of the Soldiers' home, while removing the pension money, amounting to $77,000, from Leavenworth to the home. Oliver told a comrade that he was the originator of the plot and that only for the police protection accorded the paymaster it would have succeeded. Shockley thought the man a harmless lunatic and no attempt was made to arrest him.

Oliver was induced to talk for the first time since his arrest. He related a long list of supposed wrongs the governor had done him and ended by declaring his innocence.

The national board of managers of the Soldiers' home is expected to arrive in a day or two on its annual tour of inspection and to make arrangements for the transfer of Governor Smith to the Pacific branch at Santa Monica, Cal. Governor Smith stated that nothing would be done toward clearing up the wreck of his residence until after the board should view it and make arrangements for rebuilding the shattered structure.

Governor Smith feels very anxious over the situation and said: "What will my enemies do next? God knows I have suffered enough for the last seven years at their hands. Is there no end to the persecution of a man and official because he does his duty?"

Drowned While Sailing.

NEW YORK, June 14.—Two men have been drowned from a catboat in the Hudson off Fort Lee. The party on the yacht were Miss Emma Guilmette, her brother, H. E. Guilmette, a clerk in the office of Moore & Schley, and W. Morton Smith, employed on The Mail and Express. They were sailing on the river when the boat was struck by a squall and went over. The launch Lorena Doon was some distance off and went to the rescue. Before she succeeded in reaching the boat the two men had disappeared. Miss Guilmette was still floating and was dragged on board the launch, where she revived.

Postal Telegraph Tour Ended.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The nine days' tour of the universal postal congress ended when the special train of nine Pullmans arrived at the Pennsylvania depot. There were ovations all along the route and receptions were given by state and city executives where the party stopped. The work of the congress is practically wound up, all that now remains being to sign the general treaty on Wednesday. Most of the delegation have booked passage on ocean liners for next week.

Revolutionists Capture Two Steamers.

MONTEVIDEO, June 14.—It is reported that the revolutionists have captured two large river steamers conveying reinforcements to the government troops.

A Coal Mine Burned.

TERRE HAUTE, June 14.—The bituminous coal mine of the Torrey company of Chicago, near Clinton, has been burned. Fifteen men were in the mine at the time, but all escaped. The mine is completely destroyed.

The Crew Rowed to Shore.

LYNN, Mass., June 14.—The fishing schooner Jennie D. Phillips has been wrecked on Harding's ledge. The crew of 16 men took to a boat and rowed to Swampscott.

The pressure of atmosphere on a man's body is nearly 14½ tons.

$15.000

Gass,

The Shoe Man,
Will sell

Fifteen Thousand Dollars

Worth of Shoes
and Oxfords

At from

10 To 30

PER CENT. OFF.

LOOK! LOOK! LOOK!

$5.00	Shoes at	$4.00
4.00	" "	3.20
3.50	" "	2.70
3.00	" "	2.40
2.50	" "	2.00
1.50	" "	1.20
1.25	" "	1.00
1.00	" "	.80

Not a single Pair
In the House
Will be Reserved.

1000 Pairs
Mens'
Tan
Shoes
AT COST!

This stock must be closed
out. I want the money;
you need the shoes.

Test the Truth
Of My Offer.

I will give you better bargains in footwear than you can get elsewhere on earth.

Gass,

The Shoe Merchant,
220
DIAMOND,

East Liverpool, - Ohio.

OUT AT FAIRMOUNT

The Pencil Shaver Spends a
Day With the Children.

THE HOME IS A MODEL ONE

The Children Are Cared For In the Very
Best Manner, Comfortably Clad and Well
Fed—Religious Training—Laziness a
Curse—Industry a Blessing.

Have you visited Fairmount Children's Home, situated within four miles of Alliance, O.? No. Well, then, you have missed a genuine treat. Fate ordained that the writer should have this pleasure, and he will remember the occasion so long as memory performs her duty.

The board of trustees was in session. This board meets once each month, and consists of the following members: David Boyce, East Liverpool; Elisha Teeters, Alliance; S. C. Bowman, Massillon; William G. Bentley, Salem; J. H. Reynolds, Canton. These gentlemen have been in the service for many long years, and are indefatigable in their efforts to make the Home a model one. Mr. Teeters has been on the board for over 20 years, from the time of the commencement of the institution, and he has a host of pleasing reminiscences connected therewith.

The writer received a cordial reception at the hands of the above-named gentlemen, as well as from Superintendent M. M. Southworth and his wife, the latter filling the berth of matron, and filling it in a manner which has won golden opinions of commendation from each and every official connected with the Home.

Fairmount Home is charmingly situated, surrounded with trees, evergreens, shrubbery, flowers, with roads and pathways kept in first-class order and buildings in good condition, save some of the outbuildings, barn, etc., which are sadly in need of painting, a feature which should receive immediate attention at the hands of the commissioners, and which should not be delayed for a single season, as such expenditure would prove the very truest economy. Superintendent Southworth should be given a thoroughly competent clerk and bookkeeper, as the correspondence of the Home is very heavy, and such a helper would permit the superintendent to devote much more of his attention to the fine farm of some 154 acres, as well as other important measures or duties. A talk with some of the trustees developed the fact that they thought that an assistant in the clerical department should at once be granted the superintendent.

And now let us visit the children. We first enter the dining room where the little ones are marching in to dinner, keeping step and conforming to discipline like old veterans. Seated at different tables, observing the very best of order, all heads are bowed at a given signal by Mrs. Southworth, while the wee ones chant, as a blessing asked for:

"Father now we thank thee
For thy loving care;
The food that thou hast given us,
And all we have to wear.
Oh, be with us, Father,
Now and every day;
May we ever walk with thee
In the straight and narrow way."

It was indeed a touching scene as these little children, many of them just able to toddle, called upon the Master to aid, keep and bless them, and the scene brought up the thought of how the blessed Jesus cared for just such helpless ones when here upon earth. Prayers over, the youngsters fell to with a will, and the way in which they disposed of the bountiful repast set before them, caused a feeling of lonesomeness in our own inner man. After dinner, at the request of the Matron, the children recited the Apostle's creed with charming effect, and then filed out to their respective departments, casting many curious glances at the visitors, while nodding and smiling at one another, the attentive attendants taking especial care of the "infant battalion."

The kindergarten department, under charge of Miss Mamie Merriam, was next visited. The wee ones are in the right hands here, and they went through the various exercises in superb style, apparently delighted therewith and eager to show how skillful they are. They are also workers in clay, and some of the designs and patterns turned out show talent of no mean order. The card work was also good, and ready hands were extended to the visitors, to show how well work was performed. The kindergarten is an assured success.

At present there are no patients in the neat and well kept hospital, but it is

CONTINUED ON FIFTH PAGE.

THE
STAR
BARGAIN
STORE.

Millinery.

Every trimmed hat must be sold now, and cost will not be considered. If in need of a hat, come right now to us and get one for about half price. 10 dozen ladies trimmed sailors, worth 39c, reduced to 19c. 20 dozen ladies' trimmed sailors, worth 95c, reduced to 39c. 2 tone sailors, a new lot just in, in all colors, at great saving prices. Children's fine leghorns at 39c and 48c, worth double. A new lot of summer flowers in this week which we offer at surprising low prices.

Shirt Waists.

Although the weather is rather cool for shirt waists it keeps us busy to supply the demand. We have the best made, fitting and selection of waists in the city, and our prices cannot be matched. Two shipments in this week, at 69c, 98c and $1.49. Do not buy your waists until you see our line. The latest styles of collars, cuffs and shirt waist sets just in. 25 dozen of new leather belts received today, in all shades, with new style of buckles, at 23c, worth double. 500 yards of new checked, striped and gauze 40c ribbons. Our price 25c. 500 yards of new 50c ribbons for 29c and 32½c.

SPECIAL BARGAINS
FOR TOMORROW AND MONDAY.

20c dimities and lappets for 12½c. 10c dimities tomorrow and Monday for 5c. Shirt waists with detachable collars for 39c. Summer corsets for 29c. All silk mits for 10c. 50 ladies' umbrellas, choice handles, for 75c, worth $1.25. Men's umbrellas, steel rods and fast black covers, for 95c.

Parasols fans, muslin underwear, ribbed vests, and Everything in the line of furnishings at the lowest prices. Deal at our store and you will be sure to get the best goods for the Least money.

138 & 140
Fifth
Street.
Star
Bargain
Store.

P. S. 200 bolts of new narrow laces and insertion in this week, which we sell for about half their real value; also the new style of trimming for wash goods, called foot-ing, at saving prices.

STILL ON SUGAR.

Senate Discusses That Schedule Today.
House Doing No Business.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The sugar schedule of the tariff bill is expected to continue to be the subject of consideration in the senate for the next day or two. The Hawaiian treaty and anti-trust amendments are still to be disposed of, and both will excite considerable debate. With the sugar question settled the agricultural schedule, which has been partially considered, will be again taken up, and will in time be followed by the tobacco schedule if in the meantime the Republicans agree upon its provisions.

The Republican managers hope to also dispose of the spirit and cotton schedules during the week and possibly to make some progress with the hemp and flax provisions. There will be no great amount of debate on either cotton or spirits. There was at one time talk of an attempt to add compensatory duties on cotton goods because of the duty fixed on raw cotton, but this is understood to have been abandoned, if very seriously contemplated. The Democrats do not find the present schedule objectionable except in minor details, and will allow it to go through with but little discussion.

The Republican managers now hope that the debate in the senate will be concluded within the next two weeks, notwithstanding less than one-third of the bill has been gone over. They have secured an agreement with the Democrats that the sessions shall begin at 11 o'clock each day instead of 12 after Wednesday next.

The house will probably continue its policy of adjourning from Monday over to Thursday and from Thursday until the following Monday. No business will be done and the sessions today and Thursday will be merely perfunctory.

CLAIMS HIS INNOCENCE.

The Man Under Arrest for Trying to Blow Up Gov. Smith.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., June 14.—Since the explosion at the Soldiers' home it has developed that the life of Major Shockley, the president of the Soldiers' home, was threatened by Joseph W. Oliver, the veteran under arrest for placing the dynamite bomb near the Smith residence. Oliver's pension has been held back and he made the threat in the presence of Dilwyn Packer, Shockley's chief clerk.

At a recent pay day the home officers learned of a plot to hold up the paymaster in the woods north of the Soldiers' home, while removing the pension money, amounting to $77,000, from Leavenworth to the home. Oliver told a comrade that he was the originator of the plot and that only for the police protection accorded the paymaster it would have succeeded. Shockley thought the man a harmless lunatic and no attempt was made to arrest him.

Oliver was induced to talk for the first time since his arrest. He related a long list of supposed wrongs the governor had done him and ended by declaring his innocence.

The national board of managers of the Soldiers' home is expected to arrive in a day or two on its annual tour of inspection and to make arrangements for the transfer of Governor Smith to the Pacific branch at Santa Monica, Cal. Governor Smith stated that nothing would be done toward clearing up the wreck of his residence until after the board should view it and make arrangements for rebuilding the shattered structure.

Governor Smith feels very anxious over the situation and said: "What will my enemies do next? God knows I have suffered enough for the last seven years at their hands. Is there no end to the persecution of a man and official because he does his duty?"

Drowned While Sailing.

NEW YORK, June 14.—Two men have been drowned from a catboat in the Hudson off Fort Lee. The party on the yacht were Miss Emma Guilmette, her brother, H. E. Guilmette, a clerk in the office of Moore & Schley, and W. Morton Smith, employed on The Mail and Express. They were sailing on the river when the boat was struck by a squall and went over. The launch Lorena Doon was some distance off and went to the rescue. Before she succeeded in reaching the boat the two men had disappeared. Miss Guilmette was still floating and was dragged on board the launch, where she revived.

Postal Telegraph Tour Ended.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The nine days' tour of the universal postal congress ended when the special train of nine Pullmans arrived at the Pennsylvania depot. There were ovations all along the route and receptions were given by state and city executives where the party stopped. The work of the congress is practically wound up, all that now remains being to sign the general treaty on Wednesday. Most of the delegation have booked passage on ocean liners for next week.

Revolutionists Capture Two Steamers.

MONTEVIDEO, June 14.—It is reported that the revolutionists have captured two large river steamers conveying reinforcements to the government troops.

A Coal Mine Burned.

TERRE HAUTE, June 14.—The bituminous coal mine of the Torrey company of Chicago, near Clinton, has been burned. Fifteen men were in the mine at the time, but all escaped. The mine is completely destroyed.

The Crew Rowed to Shore.

LYNN, Mass., June 14.—The fishing schooner Jennie D. Phillips has been wrecked on Harding's ledge. The crew of 16 men took to a boat and rowed to Swampscott.

The pressure of atmosphere on a man's body is nearly 14½ tons.

$15,000

Gass,

The Shoe Man,

Will sell

Fifteen Thousand Dollars

Worth of

Shoes
and Oxfords

At from

10 To 30

PER CENT. OFF.

LOOK! LOOK! LOOK!

$5.00	Shoes at	$4.00
4.00	" "	3.20
3.50	" "	2.70
3.00	" "	2.40
2.50	" "	2.00
1.50	" "	1.20
1.25	" "	1.00
1.00	" "	.80

Not a single Pair
In the House

Will be Reserved.

1000 Pairs
Mens'
Tan
Shoes
AT COST!

This stock must be closed
out. I want the money;
you need the shoes.

Test the Truth
Of My Offer.

I will give you better bargains in footwear than you can get elsewhere on earth.

Gass,

The Shoe Merchant,

220
DIAMOND,

East Liverpool, - Ohio.

OUT AT FAIRMOUNT

The Pencil Shaver Spends a
Day With the Children.

THE HOME IS A MODEL ONE

The Children Are Cared For In the Very
Best Manner, Comfortably Clad and Well
Fed—Religious Training—Laziness a
Curse—Industry a Blessing.

Have you visited Fairmount Children's Home, situated within four miles of Alliance, O.? No. Well, then, you have missed a genuine treat. Fate ordained that the writer should have this pleasure, and he will remember the occasion so long as memory performs her duty.

The board of trustees was in session. This board meets once each month, and consists of the following members: David Boyce, East Liverpool; Elisha Teeters, Alliance; S. C. Bowman, Massillon; William G. Bentley, Salem; J. H. Reynolds, Canton. These gentlemen have been in the service for many long years, and are indefatigable in their efforts to make the Home a model one. Mr. Teeters has been on the board for over 20 years, from the time of the commencement of the institution, and he has a host of pleasing reminiscences connected therewith.

The writer received a cordial reception at the hands of the above-named gentlemen, as well as from Superintendent M. M. Southworth and his wife, the latter filling the berth of matron, and filling it in a manner which has won golden opinions of commendation from each and every official connected with the Home.

Fairmount Home is charmingly situated, surrounded with trees, evergreens, shrubbery, flowers, with roads and pathways kept in first-class order and buildings in good condition, save some of the outbuildings, barn, etc., which are sadly in need of painting, a feature which should receive immediate attention at the hands of the commissioners, and which should not be delayed for a single season, as such expenditure would prove the very truest economy. Superintendent Southworth should be given a thoroughly competent clerk and bookkeeper, as the correspondence of the Home is very heavy, and such a helper would permit the superintendent to devote much more of his attention to the fine farm of some 154 acres, as well as other important measures or duties. A talk with some of the trustees developed the fact that they thought that an assistant in the clerical department should at once be granted the superintendent.

And now let us visit the children. We first enter the dining room where the little ones are marching in to dinner, keeping step and conforming to discipline like old veterans. Seated at different tables, observing the very best of order, all heads are bowed at a given signal by Mrs. Southworth, while the wee ones chant, as a blessing asked for:

"Father now we thank thee
For thy loving care;
The food that thou hast given us,
And all we have to wear.
Oh, be with us, Father,
Now and every day;
May we ever walk with thee
In the straight and narrow way."

It was indeed a touching scene as these little children, many of them just able to toddle, called upon the Master to aid, keep and bless them, and the scene brought up the thought of how the blessed Jesus cared for just such helpless ones when here upon earth. Prayers over, the youngsters fell to with a will, and the way in which they disposed of the bountiful repast set before them, caused a feeling of lonesomeness in our own inner man. After dinner, at the request of the Matron, the children recited the Apostle's creed with charming effect, and then filed out to their respective departments, casting many curious glances at the visitors, while nodding and smiling at one another, the attentive attendants taking especial care of the "infant battalion."

The kindergarten department, under charge of Miss Mamie Merriam, was next visited. The wee ones are in the right hands here, and they went through the various exercises in superb style, apparently delighted therewith and eager to show how skillful they are. They are also workers in clay, and some of the designs and patterns turned out show talent of no mean order. The card work was also good, and ready hands were extended to the visitors, to show how well work was performed. The kindergarten is an assured success.

At present there are no patients in the neat and well kept hospital, but it is

CONTINUED ON FIFTH PAGE.

THE
STAR BARGAIN
STORE.

Millinery.

Every trimmed hat must be sold now, and cost will not be considered. If in need of a hat, come right now to us and get one for about half price. 10 dozen ladies trimmed sailors, worth 39c, reduced to 19c. 20 dozen ladies' trimmed sailors, worth 95c, reduced to 39c. 2 tone sailors, a new lot just in, in all colors, at great saving prices. Children's fine leghorns at 39c and 48c, worth double. A new lot of summer flowers in this week which we offer at surprising low prices.

Shirt Waists.

Although the weather is rather cool for shirt waists it keeps us busy to supply the demand. We have the best made, fitting and selection of waists in the city, and our prices cannot be matched. Two shipments in this week, at 69c, 98c and $1.49. Do not buy your waists until you see our line. The latest styles of collars, cuffs and shirt waist sets just in. 25 dozen of new leather belts received today, in all shades, with new style of buckles, at 23c, worth double. 500 yards of new checked, striped and gauze 40c ribbons. Our price 25c. 500 yards of new 50c ribbons for 29c and 32½c.

SPECIAL BARGAINS
FOR TOMORROW AND MONDAY.

20c dimities and lappets for 12½c. 10c dimities tomorrow and Monday for 5c. Shirt waists with detachable collars for 39c. Summer corsets for 29c. All silk mits for 10c. 50 ladies' umbrellas, choice handles, for 75c, worth $1.25. Men's umbrellas, steel rods and fast black covers, for 95c.

Parasols fans, muslin underwear, ribbed vests, and Everything in the line of furnishings at the lowest prices. Deal at our store and you will be sure to get the best goods for the Least money.

138 & 140
Fifth Street.

Star
Bargain
Store.

P. S. 200 bolts of new narrow laces and insertion in this week; which we sell for about half their real value; also the new style of trimming for wash goods, called foot-ing, at saving prices.

WELLSVILLE.
TOOK THEM TO TASK

Doctor Reager Said Something
For Councilmen.

SENTIMENT AGAINST SALOONS

Kicked by a Cow--A Difference at the Mill--Died From Diphtheria--Changes at Walker--Mayor Jones in His Office--The News of Wellsville.

The sentiment against council has by no means died out, and Doctor Reager only added to it when he delivered his sermon, yesterday morning. When members of council who were church members, he said, were brought to a test of loyalty and they could not stand that test, they could not belong to church. It was a strong sermon, and caused much comment.

The News of Wellsville.

A young man named Baker was driving home the cows Saturday evening when he was kicked by one of them under the chin. He was rendered unconscious, and several stitches were required to close the wound.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel King, and Mr. and Mrs. William Cole, of Lisbon, were guests of W. H. Carpenter yesterday. Orville Todd has gone to Butler, Pa., to work.

W. A. Turner, who has been employed here for three years, left today for Paris, Ill. He has made a reputation as pitcher for the Crescents.

Percy Thompson's colt can away in Liverpool street Sunday, throwing the driver out of the cart. He was not hurt.

Dr. Hammond is after 15 boys whom he will prosecute for stealing his strawberries. He employed a man to watch them.

A train left the track at Toronto, and the wreck train was called on Saturday. Ten West End wheelmen rode to Martin's Ferry, yesterday.

Children's day was fittingly observed in the churches, yesterday.

Mrs. Will Cornelius spent Sunday with Mrs. McBane in the country.

The Crescents beat Irondale at the fair ground. Score 27-9.

A little trouble at the rolling mill caused a breeze in that part of town. Three heaters, who recently came from Pittsburg, claimed the management was not paying the Amalgamated scale. A conference was held with President Garland, in Pittsburg, and he advised the men to quit. The company claims the matter was satisfactorily adjusted, and the men discharged.

John Wilkinson was here from Empire this morning.

H. E. Lounds chaperoned a party of wheelmen to Rochester.

Mrs. Cline, of Commerce street, died last night after an illness of a month. The funeral will take place from the Second Presbyterian church tomorrow afternoon.

Charley Stevenson is in Erie on business.

G. W. Daniels and Miss Lou Moore were married by Rev. P. H. Jones.

Mayor Jones has again taken up his duties.

The lower plant of the Walker company is being enlarged.

M. R. Shingleton and Attorney Jeff Forner will go to Detroit this week where they hope to catch a party who is charged with cheating Mr. Shingleton out of a large quantity of gold.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Haines, twin sons.

Reverend Stephenson has received a unanimous call to return to the Methodist Episcopal church next year.

Misses Esther and Laura Davidson are ill with diphtheria.

Verner Shoub died this morning of membranous croup. He was six years old.

On the River.

The down river packets were all late, Saturday evening, the Lorena and Virginia not leaving here until after midnight.

Up yesterday--Keystone State. Ben Hur and Kanawha. Down--Lizzie Townsend.

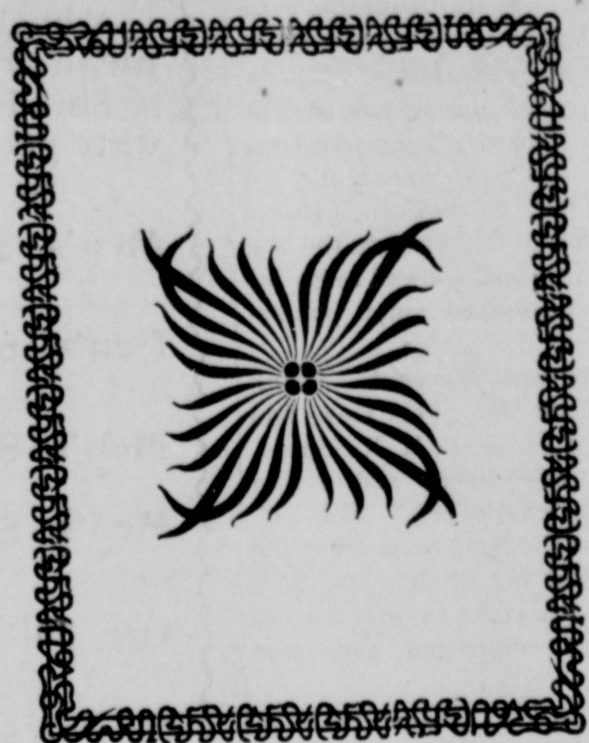

Marks, 3.9 feet, and falling.

There Will Be No Wedding.

A marriage which was slated for next Saturday will not take place. The prospective groom, who is not a resident of the city, arrived here Saturday evening, and going to the residence of his intended bride was surprised to find she had been married about three weeks to another man.

The News Review for news.

IT IS A FACT

that you can save many days'
wages

by fitting the entire family from the closing out sale of SHOES, SLIP-
PERS and OXFORDS of

J. R. WARNER & CO.,
DIAMOND.

All Sizes and Widths. Big Stock Yet to Select From.

The Human Ostrich Dead.
KANSAS CITY, June 14.—Henry Whalen, the "human ostrich," who was operated on at the German hospital Saturday last, and from whose stomach the surgeons took two pocket knives, three knife blades, three ounces of fine glass, and tacks, nails, screws and staples to the number of seventy, has died as a result of the operation.

Won the Grand Prix.
PARIS, June 14.—The Grand Prix de Paris, the chief event of the French racing and social, was won by Doge, owned by M. J. Arnaud.

PITH OF THE NEWS.
The consolidation of the Santa Fe and Atlantic and Pacific railways will take place formally in a short time.

The New York Herald has started a fund for Mark Twain, the celebrated American humorist, opening the list with a subscription of $1,000.

James Wilcox, a traveling man for a mineral water firm of Saratoga, was found dead in his room at the Galt house, Louisville. Death was due to apoplexy.

The Steuben county records at Angola, Ind., are being guarded by special police, as the people are excitedly demanding an investigation. It is thought the books must be removed.

There is talk by the people of Cripple Creek, Colo., of forming a vigilance committee similar to the one which has proven so effective at Butte. Every pay day there are holdups all over the camp.

Hiram A. Waite, ex-city comptroller of Port Huron, Mich., was sentenced to five years in the state house of correction on conviction of embezzlement of several thousand dollars from the city.

The board of trustees of the State university at Athens, Ga., voted against Chancellor Boggs' recommendation for the admission of women on the ground that they have no right to take the step without authority from the legislature.

In the United States circuit court of appeals, Judge Showalter handed down a decision reversing the judgment of $312,000 against the Monon road in favor of the stockholders of the Chicago and South Atlantic railroad.

The advertisement by the government for bids to prepare the site for the erection of the Puget Sound fortifications at Port Townsend, Wash., has brought to inspect the site contractors from Washington, Oregon and California.

The Lake Shore Railway company filed a mortgage at the registrar's office at Adrian, Mich., for $50,000,000, running to the United States Trust company, New York, J. B. Dye, trustee. The mortgage provides for 3 1/2 per cent, payable semi-annually in gold, present standard.

The Sanitary Mausoleum association of New York proposes to erect on the shores of the Hudson a large mausoleum, where bodies of the dead, treated by a new dry air process, can be preserved for centuries. The work is said to closely resemble that done by the ancient Egyptians.

The Central Pacific Railroad company will extend its $25,000,000 first mortgage, Jan. 1, for three years to such holders as will subscribe to a bondholders' agreement. Provision has been made for a syndicate to take up at par bonds of holders not wishing the extension.

Not in a Position to Criticize.
PRINCETON, N. J., June 14.—Dr. Francis Landley Patton, president of Princeton university, preached the baccalaureate sermon to the members of the graduating class. He regretted the attitude of England toward Greece, but he said: "Americans are not in a position to criticize when such a measure as the arbitration treaty has been rejected."

Killed While Wrestling.
NEW YORK, June 14.—Albert Benson and Thomas Olsen got into a friendly wrestling match in Brooklyn this afternoon. Olsen lifted Benson off his feet and threw him backwards. He did not rise, however, and Olsen walked over and tried to raise him. Benson's neck was broken.

The Weather.
Partly cloudy; warmer; light variable winds, becoming southwesterly.

SATURDAY'S LEAGUE GAMES.
Washington, 4; Pittsburg, 2.
Chicago, 6; Brooklyn, 5.
Philadelphia, 5; Cleveland, 0.
Boston, 5; Cincinnati, 1.
Baltimore, 15; Louisville, 6.
New York, 9; St. Louis, 2.

Standing of the Clubs.
W L Pc W L Pc
Balto.....29 9 .763 Pittsburg..19 20 .487
Boston.....28 12 .700 Cleveland..19 20 .487
Cincin.....25 14 .641 Louisville..17 23 .425
N. York.....23 16 .586 Chicago....16 25 .390
Phila.....23 20 .535 Wash.....13 25 .342
Brooklyn..21 19 .525 St. Louis.. 8 35 .186

League Schedule Today.
Louisville at Baltimore, Cincinnati at Boston, Chicago at Brooklyn, St. Louis at New York, Cleveland at Philadelphia and Pittsburg at Washington.

Saturday's Interstate Games.
Youngstown, 11; New Castle, 2.
Toledo, 4; Fort Wayne, 1.
Mansfield, 9; Wheeling, 11.
Dayton, 12; Springfield, 4.

Sunday's Interstate Games.
At Fort Wayne—
Ft. Wayne.....2 0 3 3 1 0 0 4 0-13 16 0
Toledo.....0 0 0 0 0 4 0 2 0-6 10 3
Batteries--Darby and O'Mera; Kelb, Arthur and Meyers.

At Dayton--
Dayton.....6 0 3 3 0 1 5 5 3-20 18 2
Springfield....2 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0-3 5 7

Interstate League Standing.
W L Pc W L Pc
New Castle..27 14 .659 Mansfield..18 22 .450
Dayton.....24 17 .585 Springfield..16 22 .421
Toledo.....25 19 .568 Youngstown..16 22 .421
Wheeling....18 21 .462 Ft. Wayne..16 23 .410

Interstate Schedule.
Dayton at Fort Wayne, Toledo at Springfield, New Castle at Mansfield, and Wheeling at Youngstown.

A strong microscope shows the single hairs of the head to be like coarse, round rasps, but with teeth extremely irregular and jagged.

ROBISON Murder Trial.

WATCH THE News Review

FOR A FULL AND CLEAN
REPORT.

The News Review caters to the family circle. Our special correspondent will have all important details, edited in a manner which will win the approval of fathers and mothers. While giving all the news, dirty sensationalism is excluded from the columns of this paper.

WELLSVILLE.

TOOK THEM TO TASK

Doctor Reager Said Something
For Councilmen.

SENTIMENT AGAINST SALOONS

Kicked by a Cow--A Difference at the Mill--Died From Diphtheria--Changes at Walker--Mayor Jones in His Office
The News of Wellsville.

The sentiment against council has by no means died out, and Doctor Reager only added to it when he delivered his sermon, yesterday morning. When members of council who were church members, he said, were brought to a test of loyalty and they could not stand that test, they could not belong to church. It was a strong sermon, and caused much comment.

The News of Wellsville.

A young man named Baker was driving home the cows Saturday evening when he was kicked by one of them under the chin. He was rendered unconscious, and several stitches were required to close the wound.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel King, and Mr. and Mrs. William Cole, of Lisbon, were guests of W. H. Carpenter yesterday. Orville Todd has gone to Butler, Pa., to work.

W. A. Turner, who has been employed here for three years, left today for Paris, Ill. He has made a reputation as pitcher for the Crescents.

Percy Thompson's colt can away in Liverpool street Sunday, throwing the driver out of the cart. He was not hurt.

Dr. Hammond is after 15 boys whom he will prosecute for stealing his strawberries. He employed a man to watch them.

A train left the track at Toronto, and the wreck train was called on Saturday. Ten West End wheelmen rode to Martin's Ferry, yesterday.

Childrens' day was fittingly observed in the churches, yesterday.

Mrs. Will Cornelius spent Sunday with Mrs. McBane in the country.

The Crescents beat Irondale at the fair ground. Score 27-9.

A little trouble at the rolling mill caused a breeze in that part of town. Three heaters, who recently came from Pittsburg, claimed the management was not paying the Amalgamated scale. A conference was held with President Garland, in Pittsburg, and he advised the men to quit. The company claims the matter was satisfactorily adjusted, and the men discharged.

John Wilkinson was here from Empire this morning.

H. E. Lounds chaperoned a party of wheelmen to Rochester.

Mrs. Cline, of Commerce street, died last night after an illness of a month. The funeral will take place from the Second Presbyterian church tomorrow afternoon.

Charley Stevenson is in Erie on business.

G. W. Daniels and Miss Lou Moore were married by Rev. P. H. Jones.

Mayor Jones has again taken up his duties.

The lower plant of the Walker company is being enlarged.

M. R. Shingleton and Attorney Jeff Forner will go to Detroit this week where they hope to catch a party who is charged with cheating Mr. Shingleton out of a large quantity of gold.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Haines, twin sons.

Reverend Stephenson has received a unanimous call to return to the Methodist Episcopal church next year.

Misses Esther and Laura Davidson are ill with diphtheria.

Verner Shoub died this morning of membranous croup. He was six years old.

On the River.

The down river packets were all late, Saturday evening, the Lorena and Virginia not leaving here until after midnight.

Up yesterday--Keystone State, Ben Hur and Kanawha. Down--Lizzie Townsend.

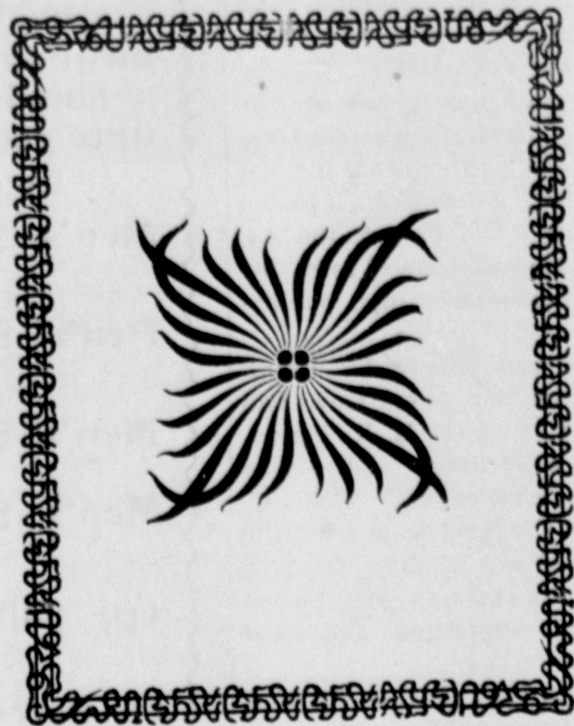

Marks, 3.9 feet, and falling.

There Will Be No Wedding.

A marriage which was slated for next Saturday will not take place. The prospective groom, who is not a resident of the city, arrived here Saturday evening, and going to the residence of his intended bride was surprised to find she had been married about three weeks to another man.

The News Review for news.

IT IS A FACT

that you
can save many days'
wages

by fitting the entire family from the closing out sale of SHOES, SLIP-
PERS and OXFORDS of

J. R. WARNER & CO.,
DIAMOND.

All Sizes and Widths. Big Stock Yet to Select From.

The Human Ostrich Dead.

KANSAS CITY, June 14.—Henry Whalen, the "human ostrich," who was operated on at the German hospital Saturday last, and from whose stomach the surgeons took two pocket knives, three knife blades, three ounces of fine glass, and tacks, nails, screws and staples to the number of seventy, has died as a result of the operation.

Won the Grand Prix.

PARIS, June 14.—The Grand Prix de Paris, the chief event of the French racing and social, was won by Doge, owned by M. J. Arnaud.

PITH OF THE NEWS.

The consolidation of the Santa Fe and Atlantic and Pacific railways will take place formally in a short time.

The New York Herald has started a fund for Mark Twain, the celebrated American humorist, opening the list with a subscription of $1,000.

James Wilcox, a traveling man for a mineral water firm of Saratoga, was found dead in his room at the Galt house, Louisville. Death was due to apoplexy.

The Steuben county records at Angola, Ind., are being guarded by special police, as the people are excitedly demanding an investigation. It is thought the books must be removed.

There is talk by the people of Cripple Creek, Colo., of forming a vigilance committee similar to the one which has proven so effective at Butte. Every pay day there are holdups all over the camp.

Hiram A. Waite, ex-city comptroller of Port Huron, Mich., was sentenced to five years in the state house of correction on conviction of embezzlement of several thousand dollars from the city.

The board of trustees of the State university at Athens, Ga., voted against Chancellor Boggs' recommendation for the admission of women on the ground that they have no right to take the step without authority from the legislature.

In the United States circuit court of appeals, Judge Shawler handed down a decision reversing the judgment of $312,000 against the Monon road in favor of the stockholders of the Chicago and South Atlantic railroad.

The advertisement by the government for bids to prepare the site for the erection of the Puget Sound fortifications at Port Townsend, Wash., has brought to inspect the site contractors from Washington, Oregon and California.

The Lake Shore Railway company filed a mortgage at the registrar's office at Adrian, Mich., for $50,000,000, running to the United States Trust company, New York, J. B. Dye, trustee. The mortgage provides for 3½ per cent, payable semi-annually in gold, present standard.

The Sanitary Mausoleum association of New York proposes to erect on the shores of the Hudson a large mausoleum, where bodies of the dead, treated by a new dry air process, can be preserved for centuries. The work is said to closely resemble that done by the ancient Egyptians.

The Central Pacific Railroad company will extend its $35,883,000 firsts, maturing Jan. 1, for three years to such holders as will subscribe to a bondholders' agreement. Provision has been made for a syndicate to take up at par bonds of holders not wishing the extension.

Not in a Position to Criticize.

PRINCETON, N. J., June 14.—Dr. Francis Landley Patton, president of Princeton university, preached the baccalaureate sermon to the members of the graduating class. He regretted the attitude of England toward Greece, but he said: "Americans are not in a position to criticize when such a measure as the arbitration treaty has been rejected."

Killed While Wrestling.

NEW YORK, June 14.—Albert Benson and Thomas Olsen got into a friendly wrestling match in Brooklyn this afternoon. Olsen lifted Benson off his feet and threw him backwards. He did not rise, however, and Olsen walked over and tried to raise him. Benson's neck was broken.

The Weather.

Partly cloudy; warmer; light variable winds, becoming southwesterly.

SATURDAY'S LEAGUE GAMES.

Washington, 4; Pittsburg, 2.
Chicago, 6; Brooklyn, 5.
Philadelphia, 5; Cleveland, 0.
Boston, 5; Cincinnati, 1.
Baltimore, 10; Louisville, 6.
New York, 15; St. Louis, 2.

Standing of the Clubs.

W	L	Pc	W	L	Pc
Balto.....	29	9	.763	Pittsburg..	19	20	.487
Boston.....	28	12	.700	Cleveland..	19	20	.487
Cincin.....	25	14	.641	Louisvle..	17	23	.425
N. York.....	20	16	.556	Chicago....	16	25	.390
Phila.....	23	19	.545	Wash.....	13	25	.342
Brooklyn..	21	19	.525	St. Louis..	8	35	.189

League Schedule Today.

Louisville at Baltimore, Cincinnati at Boston, Chicago at Brooklyn, St. Louis at New York, Cleveland at Philadelphia and Pittsburg at Washington.

Saturday's Interstate Games.

Youngstown, 11; New Castle, 2.
Toledo, 4; Fort Wayne, 1.
Mansfield, 9; Wheeling, 11.
Dayton, 12; Springfield, 4.

Sunday's Interstate Games.

At Fort Wayne—
Ft. Wayne.....2 0 3 3 1 0 0 4 0-13 16 0
Toledo.....0 0 0 0 0 0 4 0 2 0-6 10 3
Batteries--Darby and O'Mera; Kelb, Arthur and Meyers.

At Dayton—
Dayton.....0 0 3 3 0 1 5 5 3-20 18 2
Springfield...2 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0-3 5 7

Interstate League Standing.

W	L	Pc	W	L	Pc
New Castle..	27	14	.659	Mansfield..	18	22	.450
Dayton.....	24	17	.585	Springfield	16	22	.421
Toledo.....	25	19	.568	Youngstown	16	22	.421
Wheeling....	18	21	.462	Ft. Wayne..	16	23	.410

Interstate Schedule.

Dayton at Fort Wayne, Toledo at Springfield, New Castle at Mansfield, and Wheeling at Youngstown.

A strong microscope shows the single hairs of the head to be like coarse, round rasps, but with teeth extremely irregular and jagged.

ROBISON

Murder Trial.

WATCH THE News Review

FOR A FULL AND CLEAN

REPORT.

The News Review caters to the family circle. Our special correspondent will have all important details, edited in a manner which will win the approval of fathers and mothers. While giving all the news, dirty sensationalism is excluded from the columns of this paper.

The News Review.

LEADING DAILY OF COLUMBIANA COUNTY.

PUBLISHED DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY BY

THE NEWS REVIEW COMPANY.

HARRY PALMER, Manager and Proprietor.
[Entered as second class matter at the East
Liverpool, O., postoffice.]

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:

(Postage free in United States and Canada.)

One Year in Advance $5.00

Three Months 1.25

By the Week . . . . . 10

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, JUNE 14.

THERE were less business failures last week than for the same time in the last two years.

YOU will miss nothing of importance in connection with the Robison murder trial if you read the NEWS REVIEW this week.

IF congress delays too long in annexing Hawaii, Japan may take the job off our hands. The enterprising little fellows would like nothing better than an extension of territory.

EVERY other man in the west is praising some new currency scheme, founded of course on the free and unlimited coinage of silver. After awhile they will learn that what we have is good enough for anyone.

THERE seems to have been a revolution of feeling among his enthusiastic friends in Ohio, and Mr. Bryan may not come here for the campaign. There are times when the room of some men is more to be desired than their presence.

THE friends of the monetary commission can whistle loud and long in the hope of keeping up their courage, but they can rest assured that the president will do nothing until after the tariff bill is a law. William McKinley has said it, and some of the people in Washington are finding that he usually means what he says.

A CONSTITUTIONAL SNAG.

The movement to create a tariff commission bids fair to strike a snag of no mean proportions. While any law having for its object the prevention of sudden and disastrous changes in the different schedules would meet with a vast deal of popular favor, the constitution seems to stand in the way. It is a question whether congress has a right to delegate its power of raising revenue to anyone, and as that would be the duty of the commission its usefulness would probably die out in a hurry.

ALL FOR THE PROGRAM.

There is no serious difference of opinion among the Republicans of Ohio. In spite of those busybodies in the Democratic camp who are always talking of Republican factions and Republican fights they are this year mistaken. The program will be carried out at Toledo. It is not a program created by bosses and heelers, but the confirmed view of the people. General Bushnell will be renominated, Mr. Hanna will be endorsed for senator, and the party will plant its feet firmly upon the St. Louis platform, ready and willing to meet all comers.

IN FAVOR OF REVISION.

The state board of commerce has decided to issue an address urging the people to vote for the constitutional convention. Coming, as this does, after the declaration of organized labor in the same direction, its influence will be felt throughout the state. It means that the representative bodies of two powerful organizations in Ohio favor a revision of the constitution and urge the people to stand by them in their attempt to obtain better laws. That the voting public will do this there is little doubt. The necessity for a better constitution has become so apparent that few who have followed the events of these later years will hesitate for a moment in deciding upon which side they stand.

At Columbian.

The Sons of St. George will picnic at Columbian park on June 21, celebrating the queen's jubilee. On the 29th of June, the Tailors' union will celebrate at this popular resort.

All the news in the NEWS REVIEW.

ZACH ROBISON IS AT THE BAR

To Answer the Charge of Murdering His Wife.

MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE

Was Made by His Attorneys
This Morning.

HIS MOTHER COULD NOT COME

She Was Looked Upon as an Important Witness When the Defense Began to Show Its Claim For Consideration on the Ground That the Alleged Murderer Was a Victim of Hereditary Insanity. There Was Some Error In Summoning Jurors, but the Defense Waived an Objection—Liverpool Men Had Formed Opinions—Quakers Who Had Views on Capital Punishment—The Trial Will Go On.

LISBON, June 14.—[Special.]—Pale from long confinement, but plainly showing the anxiety he feels Zacharius S. Robison was taken from the old jail on the hill this morning to the court house, where he was expected to answer to the charge of killing his wife.

At 10 o'clock the case was opened. Before the tedious work of securing the jury began a motion for an indefinite continuance was filed by Judge Young and H. E. Grosshans, the alleged murderer's attorneys. The motion was based on the fact that last Sunday night a telegram was received by Judge Young to the effect that Mrs. Susan Robison, the aged mother of the deceased, was lying seriously ill at her home in Bellville, Pa., and could not in any consideration be present to testify. It is claimed that Mrs. Robison is one of the defense's most important witnesses, as it will endeavor to show in Robison hereditary insanity. This is based upon the statement that he has been afflicted since childhood, and his mother it is stated is best able to testify to it. Judge Young had a conference with him this morning.

As near as can be ascertained 43 witnesses were present when court opened. Of these 19 were for the defense; 24 for the state. In addition to this number, several have been summoned from Pittsburgh. The special venire of 38 jurors was also present, but it is altogether probable that it will take the greater part of the day to get a jury as almost a dozen of those called are from Liverpool.

Robison was taken to Sheriff Gill's office in the court house where he was carefully guarded until the time for court to open. He looked much better than do most men after confinement so long, his clothes being neatly arranged and his face newly shaven. His face was a study, for, in spite of his repeated assertion that he does not care what becomes of him, his expression was one of anxiety. He took the chair offered him as though it was one of the things he had expected, and not for fully five minutes did he appear to realize that the crowd was watching him.

Within a short time after the filing of the motion for continuance, the testimony of the absent witness was agreed upon between Attorneys Young and Grosshans and Speaker and Potts, and the work of securing the jury commenced. Before they began it was discovered that four of the special venires had not been served within the statutory time, but the defense waived their objections and the work continued. The members of the special venire were tediously examined, the first nine taking the oath of affirmation instead of the usual oath. A. R. Campbell, Samuel Huston, George Teagarden and Eli Cobbs are Quakers, and were excused owing to their views on capital punishment. The majority excused by the defense were allowed to go after answering in the affirmative to the question:

"Have you any such prejudice against the plea of insanity as would preclude you from returning a verdict of not guilty in accordance with such evidence if it were introduced?"

Prosecutor Speaker will be assisted by W. S. Potts, and Judge Young and H. E. Grosshans will battle for the prisoner.

Just now it seems as though the trial would be long drawn out, and the contest will be one of the hardest ever fought in a Columbiana county court.

The opening of court saw the jurors brought one by one for examination. The first was Saul Huston, who had formed an opinion, and was challenged by the defense. A. R. Campbell, affirmed, and was challenged by the state. Eli Cobbs was opposed to capital punishment, and Prosecutor Speaker objected. Joseph E. Bentley was challenged by the defense, and Joseph Griggs, not being challenged, took his seat in the box. S. B. Saint also got a seat in the box, and Greenwood Firth, of Liverpool, was next called. The defendant challenged him at once, and he was out of it. George Teagarden was opposed to capital punishment, and Mr. Speaker objected. James Cornell passed muster, and joined the others in the box. L. T. Lambourn was allowed to go because he was opposed to capital punishment.

Alex Smith was accepted. Frank Hawley could not change his views and was challenged, as was L. H. Kirkbride. I. N. Sitler was taken, and James Campbell was challenged. Geo. C. Murphy was at the hotel soon after the crime and could not change his view. Jno. M. Ryan was near the hotel when the deed was committed and was challenged.

On the adjournment for the noon hour the state had challenged five and the defense seven, while only five were allowed places on the jury. They were: S. B. Saint, St. Clair; Joseph Driggs, Wells-ville; Alex R. Smith, Yellow Creek; James Connell, Perry; I. N. Sitler, Salem.

The afternoon session saw only a few people at the court house, the effort to secure a jury being continued. Ira Kennel, of Unity; John Harris, Liverpool; W. L. Anglemyer, Salem; C. Keller, Center; John Sears, Perry, were qualified as jurors when the panel was complete. On being questioned as to whether they were content, the defense excused Mr. Harris and W. C. Hutchison, Perry, was called. He thought any prejudices he might have might be overcome, and took his seat.

Ed O'Connor, the last East Liverpool man, was ordered to stand aside by the state, and W. P. Stanley, Salem, was called and excused when it was found he could not return a verdict of guilty when the penalty was death. John Archibald, East Palestine, was called. He got a seat, and L. P. Saint was excused. H. D. Cope, Middleton, proved to be a Quaker and was challenged. George Robison, Liverpool was allowed to go.

W. H. Griggs was excused, and Sam Johnson, Center, was given a seat. Alex Smith was challenged, and Clark Zimmerman, of Leetonia got his place. Geo. Flanagan was challenged, and the original venire exhausted. Robert Pollock, one of the special venire of 14 drawn this afternoon was seated. Robert Gorthwaite got the seat of W. C. Hutchinson, and Isaac Flickinger was called and excused. Ed Reese, of Lisbon, was next, and at 3:20 is still on the stand.

It is not believed the jury will be complete before night.

Tom Robison, son of the accused came in from Pittsburgh this morning accompanied by Frankie Fleming, a professional pedestrian.

Robison's Crime.

The crime for which Z. S. Robison is being tried in Lisbon, was committed in this city the evening of April 24. Robison came to the city on the afternoon train from Pittsburgh, and going to the Hotel Grand, met his wife, who was here with a combination of athletes who were conducting a walking match at the rink. There was no sign of trouble, and Robison went walking. Upon returning he was admitted to his wife's room, and a few minutes later a shot rang out. When the door was opened Mrs. Robison was dying, and her husband held in his hand a revolver. He was arrested, and the inquest held Sunday morning. Monday he was bound to the grand jury, and in due time indicted.

Morley and Dogs.

John Morley is fond of dogs, especially of a diminutive fox terrier which is frequently seen at his heels on the Thames embankment or in Battersea park. This recalls the fact that when in the heat of a political canvass an opponent denounced Mr. Morley as a dog the orator and statesman replied, "I have known dogs who for fidelity, friendship, affection and devotion would contrast most favorably with some human beings."

There is a vast amount of open air oratory in Hyde park, London, on Sunday afternoons. There are stump orators of almost every shade of religion and political opinion.

SPECIAL BARGAIN SALE

of Men's Tan Shoes and Women's Oxford Ties.

Never before have seasonable shoes, right in the heart of the season, been offered at prices like we will sell them during the coming week. A backward season and an overcrowded store means money out of our pockets into yours.

This is no old stock, but all new and up-to-date goods.

Men's $5.00 Finest Vici Kid, Oxblood Lace Shoes, new coin toe, all sizes and widths, Special price $3.90

Men's $5.00 Titan Calf, Chocolate Colored lace shoes, calf skin lined, bull dog toe, Special price $3.90

Men's $4.00 Best Quality Russia Calf Lace Shoes, wine colored, coin and needle toe, Special price $3.00

Men's $3.50 Bernard and Friedman's Russia Calf shoes, mahogany color, coin and needle toe, Special price $2.48

140 pair Men's Tan and Chocolate Lace Shoes, needle and coin toes, worth $2.25 and $2.50 Special price $1.85

60 Pairs Womens' Oxford Ties and Slippers. Samples and Odds and Ends worth from $1.00 to $2.50.

Choice from lot 50c.

Womens' Vici Kid, Oxford Ties, patent tip, needle and narrow square toe, worth $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00

All Reduced to $1.48

BENDHEIM'S, DIAMOND.

The parish church of Grove, on the borders of Bedfordshire and Buckinghamshire, but situated in the latter county, is said to be the smallest and most curious church in England. The parish contains under 20 inhabitants, and the church will comfortably seat a few more than that number.

DR. J. BERT GEORGE,

SURGEON DENTIST,

Room 4, Foutts' Bld., Fifth and Market.

Office hours 8:30 a. m. to 12 m.
1:30 to 5:00 p. m.

Sexine Pills
RENEW LOST VIGOR

For sale by Alvin H. Bulger, Druglist, Cor. Sixth and West Market, East Liverpool, O.

When in doubt what to use for Nervous Debility, Loss of Power, Impotency, Atrophy, Varicocele and other weaknesses, from any cause, use Sexine Pills. Drains checked and full vigor quickly restored. If neglected, such troubles result fatally. Mailed for $1.00; 6 boxes $5.00. With $5.00 orders we give a guarantee to cure or refund the money. Address PEAL MEDICINE CO., Cleveland, O.

SAMPLE & NEAL

Handle the
Most Reliable Footwear.

No Goods in any way misrepresented.

Fit the tenderest feet in shoes that don't burn.

Give you more for the money than you generally get.

Quick sales and small profits one of our rules.

A trial with them will convince you that they

Do Business

Just as they Advertise.

Sample & Neal,

FERGUSON
& HILL BLOCK, In the Diamond.

The News Review.

LEADING DAILY OF COLUMBIANA COUNTY.

PUBLISHED DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY BY
THE NEWS REVIEW COMPANY.

HARRY PALMER, Manager and Proprietor.
[Entered as second class matter at the East
Liverpool, O., postoffice.]

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:
(Postage free in United States and Canada.)
One Year in Advance.....$5 00
Three Months.....1 25
By the Week.....10

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, JUNE 14.

THERE were less business failures last week than for the same time in the last two years.

You will miss nothing of importance in connection with the Robison murder trial if you read the NEWS REVIEW this week.

If congress delays too long in annexing Hawaii, Japan may take the job off our hands. The enterprising little fellows would like nothing better than an extension of territory.

EVERY other man in the west is praising some new currency scheme, founded of course on the free and unlimited coinage of silver. After awhile they will learn that what we have is good enough for anyone.

THERE seems to have been a revolution of feeling among his enthusiastic friends in Ohio, and Mr. Bryan may not come here for the campaign. There are times when the room of some men is more to be desired than their presence.

THE friends of the monetary commission can whistle loud and long in the hope of keeping up their courage, but they can rest assured that the president will do nothing until after the tariff bill is a law. William McKinley has said it, and some of the people in Washington are finding that he usually means what he says.

A CONSTITUTIONAL SNAG.

The movement to create a tariff commission bids fair to strike a snag of no mean proportions. While any law having for its object the prevention of sudden and disastrous changes in the different schedules would meet with a vast deal of popular favor, the constitution seems to stand in the way. It is a question whether congress has a right to delegate its power of raising revenue to anyone, and as that would be the duty of the commission its usefulness would probably die out in a hurry.

ALL FOR THE PROGRAM.

There is no serious difference of opinion among the Republicans of Ohio. In spite of those busybodies in the Democratic camp who are always talking of Republican factions and Republican fights they are this year mistaken. The program will be carried out at Toledo. It is not a program created by bosses and heelers, but the confirmed view of the people. General Bushnell will be renominated, Mr. Hanna will be endorsed for senator, and the party will plant its feet firmly upon the St. Louis platform, ready and willing to meet all comers.

IN FAVOR OF REVISION.

The state board of commerce has decided to issue an address urging the people to vote for the constitutional convention. Coming, as this does, after the declaration of organized labor in the same direction, its influence will be felt throughout the state. It means that the representative bodies of two powerful organizations in Ohio favor a revision of the constitution and urge the people to stand by them in their attempt to obtain better laws. That the voting public will do this there is little doubt. The necessity for a better constitution has become so apparent that few who have followed the events of these later years will hesitate for a moment in deciding upon which side they stand.

At Columbian.

The Sons of St. George will picnic at Columbian park on June 21, celebrating the queen's jubilee. On the 29th of June, the Tailors' union will celebrate at this popular resort.

All the news in the NEWS REVIEW.

ZACH ROBISON IS AT THE BAR

To Answer the Charge of Murdering His Wife.

MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE

Was Made by His Attorneys
This Morning.

HIS MOTHER COULD NOT COME

She Was Looked Upon as an Important Witness When the Defense Began to Show Its Claim For Consideration on the Ground That the Alleged Murderer Was a Victim of Hereditary Insanity. There Was Some Error in Summoning Jurors, but the Defense Waived an Objection—Liverpool Men Had Formed Opinions—Quakers Who Had Views on Capital Punishment—The Trial Will Go On.

LISBON, June 14.—[Special.]—Pale from long confinement, but plainly showing the anxiety he feels Zacharius S. Robison was taken from the old jail on the hill this morning to the court house, where he was expected to answer to the charge of killing his wife.

At 10 o'clock the case was opened. Before the tedious work of securing the jury began a motion for an indefinite continuance was filed by Judge Young and H. E. Grosshans, the alleged murderer's attorneys. The motion was based on the fact that last Sunday night a telegram was received by Judge Young to the effect that Mrs. Susan Robison, the aged mother of the deceased, was lying seriously ill at her home in Bellville, Pa., and could not in any consideration be present to testify. It is claimed that Mrs. Robison is one of the defense's most important witnesses, as it will endeavor to show in Robison hereditary insanity. This is based upon the statement that he has been afflicted since childhood, and his mother it is stated is best able to testify to it. Judge Young had a conference with him this morning.

As near as can be ascertained 43 witnesses were present when court opened. Of these 19 were for the defense; 24 for the state. In addition to this number, several have been summoned from Pittsburgh. The special venire of 38 jurors was also present, but it is altogether probable that it will take the greater part of the day to get a jury as almost a dozen of those called are from Liverpool.

Robison was taken to Sheriff Gill's office in the court house where he was carefully guarded until the time for court to open. He looked much better than do most men after confinement so long, his clothes being neatly arranged and his face newly shaven. His face was a study, for, in spite of his repeated assertion that he does not care what becomes of him, his expression was one of anxiety. He took the chair offered him as though it was one of the things he had expected, and not for fully five minutes did he appear to realize that the crowd was watching him.

Within a short time after the filing of the motion for continuance, the testimony of the absent witness was agreed upon between Attorneys Young and Grosshans and Speaker and Potts, and the work of securing the jury commenced. Before they began it was discovered that four of the special venires had not been served within the statutory time, but the defense waived their objections and the work continued. The members of the special venire were tediously examined, the first nine taking the oath of affirmation instead of the usual oath. A. R. Campbell, Samuel Huston, George Teagarden and Eli Cobbs are Quakers, and were excused owing to their views on capital punishment. The majority excused by the defense were allowed to go after answering in the affirmative to the question:

"Have you any such prejudice against the plea of insanity as would preclude you from returning a verdict of not guilty in accordance with such evidence if it were introduced?"

Prosecutor Speaker will be assisted by W. S. Potts, and Judge Young and H. E. Grosshans will battle for the prisoner.

Just now it seems as though the trial would be long drawn out, and the contest will be one of the hardest ever fought in a Columbiana county court.

The opening of court saw the jurors brought one by one for examination. The first was Saul Huston, who had formed an opinion, and was challenged by the defense. A. R. Campbell, affirmed, and was challenged by the state. Eli Cobbs was opposed to capital punishment, and Prosecutor Speaker objected. Joseph E. Bentley was challenged by the defense, and Joseph Griggs, not being challenged, took his seat in the box. S. B. Saint also got a seat in the box, and Greenwood Firth, of Liverpool, was next called. The defendant challenged him at once, and he was out of it. George Teagarden was opposed to capital punishment, and Mr. Speaker objected. James Cornell passed muster, and joined the others in the box. L. T. Lambourn was allowed to go because he was opposed to capital punishment.

Alex Smith was accepted. Frank Hawley could not change his views and was challenged, as was L. H. Kirkbride. I. N. Sitler was taken, and James Campbell was challenged. Geo. C. Murphy was at the hotel soon after the crime and could not change his view. Jno. M. Ryan was near the hotel when the deed was committed and was challenged.

On the adjournment for the noon hour the state had challenged five and the defense seven, while only five were allowed places on the jury. They were: S. B. Saint, St. Clair; Joseph Driggs, Wells-ville; Alex R. Smith, Yellow Creek; James Connell, Perry; I. N. Sitler, Salem.

The afternoon session saw only a few people at the court house, the effort to secure a jury being continued. Ira Kennel, of Unity; John Harris, Liverpool; W. L. Anglemeyer, Salem; C. Keller, Center; John Sears, Perry, were qualified as jurors when the panel was complete. On being questioned as to whether they were content, the defense excused Mr. Harris and W. C. Hutchinson, Perry, was called. He thought any prejudices he might have might be overcome, and took his seat.

Ed O'Connor, the last East Liverpool man, was ordered to stand aside by the state, and W. P. Stanly, Salem, was called and excused when it was found he could not return a verdict of guilty when the penalty was death. John Archibald, East Palestine, was called. He got a seat, and L. P. Saint was excused. H. D. Cope, Middleton, proved to be a Quaker and was challenged. George Robison, Liverpool was allowed to go.

W. H. Griggs was excused, and Sam Johnson, Center, was given a seat. Alex Smith was challenged, and Clark Zimmerman, of Leetonia got his place. Geo. Flugan was challenged, and the original venire exhausted. Robert Pollock, one of the special venire of 14 drawn this afternoon was seated. Robert Gorthwaite got the seat of W. C. Hutchinson, and Isaac Flickinger was called and excused. Ed Reese, of Lisbon, was next, and at 3:20 is still on the stand.

It is not believed the jury will be complete before night.

Tom Robison, son of the accused came in from Pittsburgh this morning accompanied by Frankie Fleming, a professional pedestrian.

Robison's Crime.

The crime for which Z. S. Robison is being tried in Lisbon, was committed in this city the evening of April 24. Robison came to the city on the afternoon train from Pittsburgh, and going to the Hotel Grand, met his wife, who was here with a combination of athletes who were conducting a walking match at the rink. There was no sign of trouble, and Robison went walking. Upon returning he was admitted to his wife's room, and a few minutes later a shot rang out. When the door was opened Mrs. Robison was dying, and her husband held in his hand a revolver. He was arrested, and the inquest held Sunday morning. Monday he was bound to the grand jury, and in due time indicted.

Morley and Dogs.

John Morley is fond of dogs, especially of a diminutive fox terrier which is frequently seen at his heels on the Thames embankment or in Battersea park. This recalls the fact that when in the heat of a political canvass an opponent denounced Mr. Morley as a dog orator and statesman replied, "I have known dogs who for fidelity, friendship, affection and devotion would contrast most favorably with some human beings."

There is a vast amount of open air oratory in Hyde park, London, on Sunday afternoons. There are stump orators of almost every shade of religion and political opinion.

SPECIAL BARGAIN SALE

of Men's Tan Shoes and Women's Oxford Ties.

Never before have seasonable shoes, right in the heart of the season, been offered at prices like we will sell them during the coming week. A backward season and an overcrowded store means money out of our pockets into yours.

This is no old stock, but all new and up-to-date goods.

Men's $5.00 Finest Vici Kid, Oxblood Lace Shoes, new coin toe, all sizes and widths, Special price $3.90

Men's $5.00 Titan Calf, Chocolate Colored lace shoes, calf skin lined, bull dog toe, Special price $3.90

Men's $4.00 Best Quality Russia Calf Lace Shoes, wine colored, coin and needle toe, Special price $3.00

Men's $3.50 Bernard and Friedman's Russia Calf shoes, mahogany color, coin and needle toe, Special price $2.48

140 pair Men's Tan and Chocolate Lace Shoes, needle and coin toes, worth $2.25 and $2.50 Special price $1.85

60 Pairs Womens' Oxford Ties and Slippers. Samples and Odds and Ends worth from $1.00 to $2.50.

Choice from lot 50c.

Womens' Vici Kid, Oxford Ties, patent tip, needle and narrow square toe, worth $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00

All Reduced to $1.48

BENDHEIM'S, DIAMOND.

The parish church of Grove, on the borders of Bedfordshire and Buckinghamshire, but situated in the latter county, is said to be the smallest and most curious church in England. The parish contains under 20 inhabitants, and the church will comfortably seat a few more than that number.

DR. J. BERT GEORGE,

SURGEON DENTIST,

Room 4, Foutts' Bld., Fifth and Market.

Office hours 8:30 a. m. to 12 m.
1:30 to 5:00 p. m.

RENEW LOST VIGOR

For sale by Alvin H. Bulger, Druggist, Cor. Sixth and West Market, East Liverpool, O.

When in doubt what to use for Nervous Debility, Loss of Power, Impotency, Atrophy, Varicose and other weaknesses, from any cause, use Sexine Pills. Drains checked and full vigor quickly restored. If neglected, such troubles result fatally. Mailed for $1.00; 6 boxes $5.00. With $5.00 orders we give a guarantee to cure or refund the money. Address PEAL MEDICINE CO., Cleveland, O.

SAMPLE & NEAL

Handle the
Most Reliable Footwear.

No Goods in any way misrepresented.
Fit the tenderest feet in shoes that don't burn.
Give you more for the money than you generally get.
Quick sales and small profits one of our rules.
A trial with them will convince you that they

Do Business

Just as they Advertise.

Sample & Neal,

FERGUSON
& HILL BLOCK, In the Diamond.

OUT AT FAIRMOUNT.

CONTINUED FROM SECOND PAGE.

always kept in apple pie order, ready for any emergency.

Let us visit the dairy. After testing some of the delicious milk, we are informed that they turn out 75 pounds of splendid butter each week, and furnish all the milk and cream necessary for the Home. Mr. Amos Eckert is first farmer, assisted by William Baldinger, and they take just pride in the farm and in the splendid fruit trees embraced in the two orchards, not forgetting to ask for good words for the magnificent team of chestnut sorrel draught horses, splendid specimens, broad and deep of chest and massive of neck, capable of pulling almost any load within the bounds of reason.

Charley Seaman, raised at the home, has charge of the electrical department, and keeps the same in splendid condition. He is an artist in his line, a great reader and close observer. The motive power is a twenty-horse power Buckeye engine, driving a handsome dynamo, furnishing light for 180 lamps. The engine house and all appliances are kept in first-class condition.

The apparatus for extinguishing fire are all O. K., and kept in order, ready for emergencies. Aside from hose and reels, placed ready for quick and effective work, there are twelve chemical extinguishers, placed in the various departments.

In cottage No. 1 there are 24 girls, from 5 to 14 years of age, under control of Miss Alice Finney, of Holloway, Ohio. No. 2 embraces 24 boys, from 5 to 12, under control of Miss Bird C. Foster. No. 3, Miss Sadie Eckert, 24 boys, 4 to 8. In the nurseries we find 14 boys and girls, from 1 to 2 years, in care of Miss Clara Cline. Miss Amelia Hall controls 14 girls and boys, 1 to 3 years of age. The farm house is separate from the main building, and here are domiciled 24 bouncing boys, from 8 to 15 years of age, as full of life and fun as is an egg of good meat. Many of these lads are efficient helpers about the farm, the superintendent believing that Satan finds much for idle hands to do. The boys are under charge of Miss Mary Hulis. The baking department is under charge of Miss Georgiana Nestrick, of Alliance. The bread turned out at the Home cannot be excelled. We know whereof we speak, as we tested it fully at the bountifully supplied table of the superintendent, the same class of bread being given to all the inmates of the Home. Miss Maggie Grossen has charge of the cooking department, and she is an artist in her special department of work. Miss Hattie Rose takes good care of the butter and milk department, and acts as first dining room girl. Miss Lizzie Hancock has charge of the childrens and employees dining room and the store room. There are two teachers in charge of educational matters in the primary and grammar grades, under the supervision of Misses Lizzie Smith and Maud Rolls. Miss Samantha Burdett, of Cambridge, Ohio, has control of the tailoring department, cutting, fitting and making the boys' clothing. Miss Mattie Williamson is seamstress, and cares for the girls clothing. Misses Burdett and Williamson also assist in waiting upon the children in the dining room. Misses Maggie Senfton and Edith Unger have charge of the laundry.

The dormitories for the use of the children are clean, neat and well ventilated, cool and comfortable in the sultry months and snug and warm in the fall and winter, the heating arrangements being first-class. The dining room for the children is a beauty, 46x60 feet, and the very perfection of neatness. There is a handsome little chapel connected with the Home, and services are held every Sabbath, with preaching whenever a minister can be secured. Superintendent Southworth has charge of the Sabbath school.

There are 400 sugar trees on the farm, and some 220 gallons of home made molasses were turned out last year, with 700 gallons of apple butter as the product from the two orchards.

Last year there were over 3,000 visitors to the Home, and each received a cordial welcome. It is not flattery to say that Superintendent Southworth and his wife are the proper persons to have control of the Home. The trustees speak of them in warm terms of praise, and affairs at the Home demonstrate the fact that the management is all that can be desired. Aside from the fact that the little ones are away from the presence of father and mother, it seems that they could not be better provided for and cared for. Indeed, in many, very many cases, the Fairmount Home is a very Godsend to the children. They are well and comfortably clothed, have snug quarters, the very best of food, their education is attended to, and they are subject to the best of religious training, while they are taught that laziness is a curse and industrious habits a blessing. The funds invested in sustaining the Home is a good investment, and each contributor can rest assured that he or she is assisting a truly worthy institution.

PEGEE COOLEY.

ALUM CLIFF.

Have You Visited This Very Delightful Place?

Have you visited Alum Cliff, now the home of our well-known townsman, J. R. Warner? It is truly a delightful place of residence, embracing some 65 acres, and could be made, at no great expense, a superb summer resort. There is splendid fishing in the stream passing through this plot, as the writer, while walking along the shore thereof, caught sight of a number of nice black bass and a superb specimen of the sucker family, known to disciples of Isaak Walton as the "red horse." Game abounds in the surrounding forest, but you cannot gather it in without permission, as the farmers are very seriously opposed to trespassers, and will enforce the law to the letter against them. Oil has been found in paying quantities, and the fluid is of the very best, commanding 14 cents per gallon, while the pressure of gas is very strong, and further developments may result in supplying some of our industrial centers.

The residence of J. R. Warner is admirably situated on a commanding cliff, where the air is laden with life and health-giving qualities—just such a position as would suit the writer in case he had laid up sufficient filthy lucre to take his ease and rest content.

Have they strawberries at Alum Cliff? Well, I should and will remark that they have. Did the pencil shaver sample them? Did he not! And the trimmings, in the shape of "crushed" and cream; and such cream. Say, you jealous newspaper fiends, the feast was delicious beyond description. Don't you wish you might have taken a hand in the game?

The roads were in a splendid condition, and the trip, seated behind one of John Rinehart's best roadsters, was simply a season of delight. Coming home in the gloaming, the surrounding scenery was simply magnificent, and the heart was filled with delight and gave silent thanks to the giver of all good gifts. He who created such a beautiful world and gave it to his children to enjoy and to make a heaven on earth of, if they but conform with the divine will.

HE KNEW ROBISON.

The Man Was Then a Quiet, Respected Citizen.

Zach Robison, whose trial for the murder of his wife commenced at Lisbon today, is well known to A. G. Minehart, a former resident of the city, but now of Youngstown. About 10 years ago in Mansfield, Pa., Mr. Minehart lived only a few doors from Robison and his family. He says at that time Robison was a sober, industrious man, and his family were very nice people. He was surprised to hear of the crime committed by Robison, as he had not heard anything of him since leaving Mansfield.

FORTY CANCERS

Were Removed From a Woman Who Later Died.

Saturday morning physicians performed an operation on Mrs. Matilda Burns, of Williamsport, and removed 40 cancers from her side and arm. The lady lived 36 hours after the operation was performed dying yesterday afternoon. The funeral will take place Wednesday morning. Interment will be made at Clarkson.

Gone to the Encampment.

Hon. A. H. McCoy and D. J. Smith left this morning to attend the state encampment of the Grand Army in Chilliscothe. The program will last three days, commencing tomorrow. Mrs. Otrim, Mrs. Bryan and Mrs. Bowers also left for the same place to attend the session of the Womens' Relief corps.

Work at the Burford Plant.

The gas engine at the Burford plant was started Saturday afternoon, and worked satisfactorily. Clay was made today, and all the jollymen will be at work tomorrow.

On the Force.

The gentleman who picks the paper from the streets in the evening is a member of the street cleaning force and is paid by the city for his work.

Only Three.

There are but three people now in the coop.

—Reverend Salmon left for Harlem Springs, where he will visit his father for ten days.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Miss Alice Goodwin was in Pittsburg today.

—Miss Anna Rhoades has returned to Beaver Falls.

—Mrs. R. J. Boggs has returned to her home in Carrollton.

—Miss Mabel Webber is visiting friends in Grandview, O.

—Harry D. Wilkin, of Steubenville, was in the city yesterday.

—Reverend J. C. Taggart left for Wilmington, Pa., this morning.

—P. B. Conn, of Steubenville, was in the city a short time Saturday.

—Rev. S. C. Fleming, of Eldersville, is the guest of John A. George.

—Edger Eagen left this morning for Newcomerstown to visit his brother.

—Rev. W. V. Barnhart, of Clearfield county, Pa., spent the day in the city.

—Miss Ruth Hall left for Wheeling Saturday on account of the illness of her mother.

—Miss Cannon left for Surface, Pa., to attend the funeral of a relative this morning.

—Al. Kinsey, of Braddock, and William Heathcote, of McKeesport, spent Sunday in the city.

Brutality to a Horse Punished.

The Society For the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals succeeded in having a prominent horseman in New Jersey heavily fined for docking his horse's tail, attention being drawn to the case by the cries of the animal itself under torture. It is to be hoped that in time this cruel and disfiguring practice will entirely pass away, and other states would do well to follow the example of New Jersey in hastening its decay by severe laws, strictly applied to every proved case. The senseless and brutal idea that mutilation of our domestic animals is ornamental needs a humane and efficient check.—Baltimore American.

Women at the Saw.

There is a sawmill in Grandin, Mo., many departments of which are in charge of women. There is a woman in charge of the engine. One of the rooms where the big saws are operated is managed by women. The lathe room is also populated with femininity, and the machines of all sorts are handled by them. In the rooms adjoining a force of young women is constantly employed, filing and getting the saws in shape for work. The care of the machinery is in their hands, and it is said they are quite as adept and as competent to handle it as any force yet employed in the mill.—Exchange.

It is said that the word "flapdoodle" was first used by Captain Marryat in "Peter Simple," where it was made to mean "the stuff they feed fools on."

The statue of Jupiter Olympius, by Phidias, was of gold and ivory and was 58 feet high. It was finished in the year 444 B. C.

We, the undersigned druggists favor and agree to close our respective places of business from 1 until 6 o'clock p. m., June 15, 1897:

WILL REED,
W. O. HAMILTON,
A. H. BULGER,
C. G. ANDERSON,
CHAS. T. LARKINS,
B. C. ANSLY,
JNO. I. HODSON,
W. & W. PHARMACY.

WANTED.

MADAM URSLERE, THE FORTUNE teller, reveals everything; charms worked; never fails. Ladies, 25 and 50c; gentlemen, 50c and $1. Room 4, 164 Third street.

WANTED—AN EXPERIENCED TRANSFER. Apply at 200 Sixth street.

FOR RENT.

TO LET. THREE ROOMS. 109 WASHINGTON street. Inquire of J. B. McKinnon.

FOR RENT—A FURNISHED ROOM. Apply at 241 Fifth street.

FOR RENT—TWO FRONT ROOMS, furnished, near the postoffice. Inquire at this office.

FOR RENT—GOOD FOUR ROOM HOUSE in Chester. Inquire of W. H. Riley, Chester, or this office.

FURNISHED ROOM—DESIRABLY LOCATED; heart of the city; suitable for one or two gentlemen. Call at the NEWS REVIEW office.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE. TWO LEVEL LOTS IN EAST End making 100 feet frontage on St. George ave. and 80 feet on Cross street. Shade trees. Price $1,250.00. Enquire of W. E. MERCER, No. 316 Fourth Street.

FOR SALE—DO YOU WANT A COSY, homelike, comfortable cottage? Do you want a home for the summer? If so, you can secure one of the hand-omest cottages at Spring Grove, on very reasonable terms. For further information, call at the NEWS REVIEW office.

FOR SALE—LADIES' BIKE, AT A GREAT bargain. Call at the NEWS REVIEW office.

OUR

ROCKER SALE

will be continued this week.

Last week we sold many of these luxurious articles to the great satisfaction of the purchasers, but still have a great many to clear out before we can give the builders all the room they want to finish our enlargement.

THERE ARE BARGAINS

These Days at

The Big Store

as it is cheaper to move the goods into your home than back and forth in our store, as we must do to give the builders a chance.

The S. G. HARD Co.

THE BIG STORE :

OUT AT FAIRMOUNT.

CONTINUED FROM SECOND PAGE.

always kept in apple pie order, ready for any emergency.

Let us visit the dairy. After testing some of the delicious milk, we are informed that they turn out 75 pounds of splendid butter each week, and furnish all the milk and cream necessary for the Home. Mr. Amos Eckert is first farmer, assisted by William Baldinger, and they take just pride in the farm and in the splendid fruit trees embraced in the two orchards, not forgetting to ask for good words for the magnificent team of chestnut sorrel draught horses, splendid specimens, broad and deep of chest and massive of neck, capable of pulling almost any load within the bounds of reason.

Charley Seaman, raised at the home, has charge of the electrical department, and keeps the same in splendid condition. He is an artist in his line, a great reader and close observer. The motive power is a twenty-horse power Buckeye engine, driving a handsome dynamo, furnishing light for 180 lamps. The engine house and all appliances are kept in first-class condition.

The apparatus for extinguishing fire are all O. K., and kept in order, ready for emergencies. Aside from hose and reels, placed ready for quick and effective work, there are twelve chemical extinguishers, placed in the various departments.

In cottage No. 1 there are 24 girls, from 5 to 14 years of age, under control of Miss Alice Finney, of Holloway, Ohio. No. 2 embraces 24 boys, from 5 to 12, under control of Miss Bird C. Foster. No. 3, Miss Sadie Eckert, 24 boys, 4 to 8. In the nurseries we find 14 boys and girls, from 1 to 2 years, in care of Miss Clara Cline. Miss Amelia Hall controls 14 girls and boys, 1 to 3 years of age. The farm house is separate from the main building, and here are domiciled 24 bouncing boys, from 8 to 15 years of age, as full of life and fun as is an egg of good meat. Many of these lads are efficient helpers about the farm, the superintendent believing that Satan finds much for idle hands to do. The boys are under charge of Miss Mary Hulis. The baking department is under charge of Miss Georgiana Nestrick, of Alliance. The bread turned out at the Home cannot be excelled. We know whereof we speak, as we tested it fully at the bountifully supplied table of the superintendent, the same class of bread being given to all the inmates of the Home. Miss Maggie Grossen has charge of the cooking department, and she is an artist in her special department of work. Miss Hattie Rose takes good care of the butter and milk department, and acts as first dining room girl. Miss Lizzie Heacock has charge of the childrens and employees dining room and the store room. There are two teachers in charge of educational matters in the primary and grammar grades, under the supervision of Misses Lizzie Smith and Maud Rolls. Miss Samantha Burdett, of Cambridge, Ohio, has control of the tailoring department, cutting, fitting and making the boys' clothing. Miss Mattie Williamson is seamstress, and cares for the girls clothing. Misses Burdett and Williamson also assist in waiting upon the children in the dining room. Misses Maggie Senfton and Edith Unger have charge of the laundry.

The dormitories for the use of the children are clean, neat and well ventilated, cool and comfortable in the sultry months and snug and warm in the fall and winter, the heating arrangements being first-class. The dining room for the children is a beauty, 46x60 feet, and the very perfection of neatness. There is a handsome little chapel connected with the Home, and services are held every Sabbath, with preaching whenever a minister can be secured. Superintendent Southworth has charge of the Sabbath school.

There are 400 sugar trees on the farm, and some 220 gallons of home made molasses were turned out last year, with 700 gallons of apple butter as the product from the two orchards.

Last year there were over 3,000 visitors to the Home, and each received a cordial welcome. It is not flattery to say that Superintendent Southworth and his wife are the proper persons to have control of the Home. The trustees speak of them in warm terms of praise, and affairs at the Home demonstrate the fact that the management is all that can be desired. Aside from the fact that the little ones are away from the presence of father and mother, it seems that they could not be better provided for and cared for. Indeed, in many, very many cases, the Fairmount Home is a very Godsend to the children. They are well and comfortably clothed, have snug quarters, the very best of food, their education is attended to, and they are subject to the best of religious training, while they are taught that laziness is a curse and industrious habits a blessing. The funds invested in sustaining the Home is a good investment, and each contributor can rest assured that he or she is assisting a truly worthy institution.

PEGEE COOLEY.

ALUM CLIFF.

Have You Visited This Very Delightful Place?

Have you visited Alum Cliff, now the home of our well-known townsman, J. R. Warner? It is truly a delightful place of residence, embracing some 65 acres, and could be made, at no great expense, a superb summer resort. There is splendid fishing in the stream passing through this plot, as the writer, while walking along the shore thereof, caught sight of a number of nice black bass and a superb specimen of the sucker family, known to disciples of Isak Walton as the "red horse." Game abounds in the surrounding forest, but you cannot gather it in without permission, as the farmers are very seriously opposed to trespassers, and will enforce the law to the letter against them. Oil has been found in paying quantities, and the fluid is of the very best, commanding 14 cents per gallon, while the pressure of gas is very strong, and further developments may result in supplying some of our industrial centers.

The residence of J. R. Warner is admirably situated on a commanding cliff, where the air is laden with life and health-giving qualities—just such a place as would suit the writer in case he had laid up sufficient filthy lucre to take his ease and rest content.

Have they strawberries at Alum Cliff? Well, I should and will remark that they have. Did the pencil shaver sample them? Did he not! And the trimmings, in the shape of "crushed" and cream; and such cream. Say, you jealous newspaper fiends, the feast was delicious beyond description. Don't you wish you might have taken a hand in the game?

The roads were in a splendid condition, and the trip, seated behind one of John Rinehart's best roadsters, was simply a season of delight. Coming home in the gloaming, the surrounding scenery was simply magnificent, and the heart was filled with delight and gave silent thanks to the giver of all good gifts. He who created such a beautiful world and gave it to his children to enjoy and to make a heaven on earth of, if they but conform with the divine will.

HE KNEW ROBISON.

The Man Was Then a Quiet, Respected Citizen.

Zach Robison, whose trial for the murder of his wife commenced at Lisbon today, is well known to A. G. Minehart, a former resident of the city, but now of Youngstown. About 10 years ago in Mansfield, Pa., Mr. Minehart lived only a few doors from Robison and his family. He says at that time Robison was a sober, industrious man, and his family were very nice people. He was surprised to hear of the crime committed by Robison, as he had not heard anything of him since leaving Mansfield.

FORTY CANCERS

Were Removed From a Woman Who Later Died.

Saturday morning physicians performed an operation on Mrs. Matilda Burns, of Williamsport, and removed 40 cancers from her side and arm. The lady lived 36 hours after the operation was performed dying yesterday afternoon. The funeral will take place Wednesday morning. Interment will be made at Clarkson.

Gone to the Encampment.

Hon. A. H. McCoy and D. J. Smith left this morning to attend the state encampment of the Grand Army in Chilliscothe. The program will last three days, commencing tomorrow. Mrs. Otrim, Mrs. Bryan and Mrs. Bowers also left for the same place to attend the session of the Womans' Relief corps.

Work at the Burford Plant.

The gas engine at the Burford plant was started Saturday afternoon, and worked satisfactorily. Clay was made today, and all the jollymen will be at work tomorrow.

On the Force.

The gentleman who picks the paper from the streets in the evening is a member of the street cleaning force and is paid by the city for his work.

Only Three.

There are but three people now in the coop.

—Reverend Salmon left for Harlem Springs, where he will visit his father for ten days.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Miss Alice Goodwin was in Pittsburg today.

—Miss Anna Rhoades has returned to Beaver Falls.

—Mrs. R. J. Boggs has returned to her home in Carrollton.

—Miss Mabel Webber is visiting friends in Grandview, O.

—Harry D. Wilkin, of Steubenville, was in the city yesterday.

—Reverend J. C. Taggart left for Wilmington, Pa., this morning.

—P. B. Conn, of Steubenville, was in the city a short time Saturday.

—Rev. S. C. Fleming, of Eldersville, is the guest of John A. George.

—Edger Eagen left this morning for Newcomerstown to visit his brother.

—Rev. W. V. Barnhart, of Clearfield county, Pa., spent the day in the city.

—Miss Ruth Hall left for Wheeling Saturday on account of the illness of her mother.

—Miss Cannon left for Surface, Pa., to attend the funeral of a relative this morning.

—Al. Kinsey, of Braddock, and William Heathcote, of McKeesport, spent Sunday in the city.

Brutality to a Horse Punished.

The Society For the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals succeeded in having a prominent horseman in New Jersey heavily fined for docking his horse's tail, attention being drawn to the case by the cries of the animal itself under torture. It is to be hoped that in time this cruel and disfiguring practice will entirely pass away, and other states would do well to follow the example of New Jersey in hastening its decay by severe laws, strictly applied to every proved case. The senseless and brutal idea that mutilation of our domestic animals is ornamental needs a humane and efficient check. —Baltimore American.

Women at the Saw.

There is a sawmill in Grandin, Mo., many departments of which are in charge of women. There is a woman in charge of the engine. One of the rooms where the big saws are operated is managed by women. The lathe room is also populated with femininity, and the machines of all sorts are handled by them. In the rooms adjoining a force of young women is constantly employed, filing and getting the saws in shape for work. The care of the machinery is in their hands, and it is said they are quite as adept and as competent to handle it as any force yet employed in the mill. —Exchange.

It is said that the word "flapdoodle" was first used by Captain Marryat in "Peter Simple," where it was made to mean "the stuff they feed fools on."

The statue of Jupiter Olympius, by Phidias, was of gold and ivory and was 58 feet high. It was finished in the year 444 B. C.

We, the undersigned druggists favor and agree to close our respective places of business from 1 until 6 o'clock p. m., June 15, 1897:

WILL REED,
W. O. HAMILTON,
A. H. BULGER,
C. G. ANDERSON,
CHAS. T. LARKINS,
B. C. ANSLY,
JNO. I. HODSON,
W. & W. PHARMACY.

WANTED.

MADAM URSHLERE, THE FORTUNE teller, reveals everything; charms worked; never fails. Ladies, 25 and 50c; gentlemen, 50c and $1. Room 4, 164 Third street.

WANTED—AN EXPERIENCED TRANSFER. Apply at 200 Sixth street.

FOR RENT.

TO LET, THREE ROOMS, 100 WASHINGTON street. Inquire of J. B. McKinnon.

FOR RENT—A FURNISHED ROOM. Apply at 241 Fifth street.

FOR RENT—TWO FRONT ROOMS, furnished, near the postoffice. Inquire at this office.

FOR RENT—GOOD FOUR ROOM HOUSE in Chester. Inquire of W. H. Riley, Chester, or this office.

FURNISHED ROOM—DESIRABLY located; heart of the city; suitable for one or two gentlemen. Call at the NEWS REVIEW office.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE, TWO LEVEL LOTS IN EAST End making 100 feet frontage on St. George ave. and 80 feet on Cross street. Shade trees. Price $1,350.00. Enquire of W. E. MERCER, No. 316 Fourth Street.

FOR SALE—DO YOU WANT A COSY, homelike, comfortable cottage? Do you want a home for the summer? If so, you can secure one of the hand-omest cottages at Spring Grove, on very reasonable terms. For further information, call at the NEWS REVIEW office.

FOR SALE—LADIES' BIKE, AT A GREAT bargain. Call at the NEWS REVIEW office.

OUR

ROCKER SALE

will be continued this week.

Last week we sold many of these luxurious articles to the great satisfaction of the purchasers, but still have a great many to clear out before we can give the builders all the room they want to finish our enlargement.

THERE ARE BARGAINS

These Days at

The Big Store

as it is cheaper to move the goods into your home than back and forth in our store, as we must do to give the builders a chance.

THE S. G. HARD Co.

THE BIG STORE :

VERY NEAR TO DEATH

Secretary Charles May Not Live Through the Day.

HIS BROTHER IS WITH HIM

The Attack of Typhoid Fever Developed Into Something Much More Serious Than Was Expected—He Has Been Delirious. Hospital Criticized.

There are a great many people who will hear this evening with deepest sorrow that William H. Charles, secretary of the Young Men's Christian association, is lying at the Allegheny General hospital, expected by his nurse and physicians to die at any minute.

After Mr. Charles recovered from his late illness he was able to look after his duties for a few days, and then there developed symptoms of a relapse. He stayed bravely by his duty, however, until it was evident that he could no longer stand the strain. Acting on the advice of friends he decided to enter the hospital, a well known physician, not connected with that institution, being employed to attend him. He left here on the evening train expecting the doctor to meet him at the station, but when he arrived no doctor was there. Mr. Charles, being unacquainted with Pittsburgh, did not realize the task which lay before him when he set out to find the physician. Burdened with his valise and weakened by the disease the walk was far too great a strain, and when he reached the hospital, long after midnight, he was in a precarious condition.

Mr. Charles was at once put to bed, and from that hour has been in a dangerous condition. It was repeatedly given out that he was getting along as well as could be expected, and for that they are severely criticized. He is in charge of one of the best nurses, and is of course receiving every care and attention. His brother arrived from Utica this morning. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Roberts were at the hospital yesterday, and only after a great deal of urging could they obtain permission to see him. He was at that time very low, and only recognized them for a few minutes.

The NEWS REVIEW telephoned to the hospital, this morning, and learned that Mr. Charles' condition was unchanged. He had passed a bad night.

BIBLE OR ANTI BIBLE.

A Voter and Tax Payer Discusses This Important Subject.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW—The feeling which now appears to exist in this community in regard to the election of superintendent for the public schools does not, it is said, involve the question of the Bible in the schools. Two years ago, or about that time, the then existing board of education and the present superintendent were charged with opposing the Bible in the schools and with discharging two teachers for persisting in reading the Bible in their school rooms, in defiance of the orders of the superintendent. That same superintendent now, in his report to the present board of education, and his address to the graduating class, claims to be for the Bible, first, last and all the time, in the schools and out of the schools. Presto change. There is a superintendent to be elected this year. I do not pretend to say whether that oldboard of education was guilty, as charged, of opposing the Bible in the schools, or not. They claim "not guilty," and an appeal to the public, about a year ago, or a little over, on that question, in the election of members of the board of education, resulted in the defeat of those of the old board who were candidates for re-election.

If the present superintendent was compelled by the board of education to discharge those teachers, and practically prohibit the use of the Bible in the schools, against his opinion of the proper use of the Bible in the schools, as he expresses himself at the present time, then he should be considered a martyr to thus violate his opinions in regard to the bible for $1900 a year. Possibly, if those candidates who were defeated for re-election two years ago, had come out in public speeches and documents and declared that they loved the Bible, in schools and out of the schools, and that they would have nothing but Bible in theirs, they would have been re-elected. Mr. Editor, please turn on more light.

A VOTER.

Likes the News Review.

Miss M. Belle Azdell writes to the NEWS REVIEW as follows from her home in Denver, Col:

"We look each day for our home paper; it is a daily letter to us from home. It seems as if we could not get along without the NEWS REVIEW."

CORBETT AND O'ROURKE.

It Was Not a Fight, but There Were Some Symptoms.

A difference that might have resulted in a scrapping encounter between Jim Corbett and Eugene O'Rourke started shortly after 4 o'clock on a recent morning in Martin's oyster house, Broadway, near Fortieth street, New York.

"Pompador Jim" entered the restaurant accompanied by Arthur Moore, "Honest" John Kelly, Eugene O'Rourke, Billy Brady and a number of other sports who have been associated with the Californian during the past two years, and the entire party drank foaming beakers of seductive fizz. The conversation naturally turned to the veriscope reproductions of the battle at Carson City, and the sporting men around the table expressed their opinions of the fight as projected on canvas.

O'Rourke's remarks were offensive to the ex-champion, and the former finally arose from the table, saying: "Jim, I'll kill you, anyhow."

"No, you won't. You don't mean that," said the pugilist as he jumped to his feet and clasped O'Rourke around the body.

Friends separated the would be fighters, and after harmony had been restored and healths pledged again Corbett and O'Rourke left the place arm in arm, vowing eternal friendship.

WHEELMEN MUST DISMOUNT

Damages Not Allowed For One Who Did Not and Was Killed.

A man on a bicycle came to a railroad crossing where there were four tracks. A freight train was passing, and he could not cross. He did not dismount, but rode round in a circle several times. As the last car passed he started across and was killed by a train moving in the opposite direction, but which he could not see while riding round.

A suit was brought for damages, and the supreme court of Georgia has just delivered its decision denying the right of the heirs to damages. Justice Miller, delivering the opinion, said that the deceased should have dismounted and taken reasonable precautions himself. Circling round and round did not constitute a legal stop, according to the court.

"Considering the case of dismounting and the control of the rider over his instrument, a bicyclist must, under all ordinary circumstances, be treated as subject to the same rules as a pedestrian. He must dismount or at least bring his wheel to such a stop as will enable him to look up and down the track and listen in the manner required of a pedestrian."—Atlanta Constitution.

PUBLIC PRINTER PUZZLED.

Government Printing Office Found Itself Short of Funds.

The policy of inaction in the national house of representatives is likely to cause some annoyance to employees in the government printing office. The senate, on the representation of the public printer that there was only a little money on hand, promptly passed a joint resolution making an appropriation of $225,000, which it was expected the house would consider at once. But no opportunity was given, and upon the first vote being taken, the house being without a quorum, adjournment followed.

Mr. Palmer states that the office will be seriously hampered if this money, or a portion of it at least, is not made immediately available. An effort will be made to have the committee on rules bring in an order for the consideration of the joint resolution, for it is already known that objection will be made to its consideration by unanimous consent.—Washington Post.

Dynamite Thawed Too Fast.

At Hermantown, seven miles from Duluth, recently Frank Lucek, a farmer living there, was thawing some dynamite to be used in clearing land of stumps. He was heating it over a fire, when it exploded, tearing the house almost to pieces and killing Lucek and two young sons. Another boy was blown through a window, Mrs. Lucek was injured and what remained of the house caught fire and was destroyed. The mother and son were brought to Duluth and are in the hospital here. The boy may die, but the mother will recover.

Forged Her Mother's Name.

Ellen Cadman, the 15-year-old daughter of Mrs. L. A. Cadman of Chattanooga, was arrested recently at the instance of her mother on a charge of forgery. The young lady had cashed checks to the amount of $80 purporting to have been signed by her mother. A friend of the girl, in order to save her from spending the night in the city jail, made up the amount, and she was released. The girl is very handsome and unusually bright for one of her age. The mother and daughter were later reconciled.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Mr. Bryan in Washington.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—W. J. Bryan paid a hurried visit to Washington, arriving here from New York and leaving for Norfolk, Va. There were many callers at the hotel where Mr. Bryan stopped. He attended service at the New York Avenue Presbyterian church and later in the day dined with Senator Jones, the chairman of the national Democratic committee.

CHEAP TRIP ABROAD.

MANY TAKE ADVANTAGE OF SUMMER RATES AND GO TO EUROPE.

Journey Need Not Be Expensive—Persons of Moderate Means May Travel Comfortably and at Little Cost—Several Sorts of Tours That Offer Themselves.

Judging from the number of passages engaged at the various steamship offices, the annual summer hegira of American travelers to the shores of the old world will be greater numerically this year than it was last season. The hard times apparently have no effect on this class of tourists. The majority of June and July tourists come from the ranks of the professional classes, public school-teachers, college professors and the clerical calling availing themselves of the long vacation to travel.

The objection is raised that many millions of hard earned American dollars are carried out of the country and spent abroad and that the truly patriotic citizen would better visit the wonders of his native land first and circulate his money among his compatriots, but that is a mere matter of opinion. In America we have magnificent distances and sublime nature unadorned, while in Europe there is not so much of this, but the remains of much that the human race has accomplished in architecture and art and glimpses of the most advanced state of civilization to which man has attained.

It is worth a trip across the Atlantic to visit London. The Murillos, Raphaels and hundreds of other masterpieces of the National gallery give an education in art which cannot be duplicated in this country. The British museum is a treasure house stored with material more than a man can exhaust in a lifetime. Westminster abbey is near by, with its honored dead, and not far away the Tower of London, peopled with memories of the great, the good and the innocent, and in the cemetery attached to the ancient chapel of St. Peter are the remains of Lady Jane Grey, Sir Walter Raleigh, Anne Boleyn, Sir Thomas More and Lord Somerset. But visit these time honored historical places, and both history and literature are vitalized, allusions hitherto unnoticed spring to life on the printed page, and the understanding is both quickened and enriched.

At first thought a trip to Europe appears like an extravagant undertaking, but a little careful estimating of expenses proves that the European tour costs no more than the same amount of travel in America. The trip from Chicago to New York by any first class railroad costs $23 for fare; sleeper, $5; meals, $3; total, $31—for two days' travel. An ocean greyhound charges $75 for six days' travel, a slower boat $60 for ten days' travel, including every comfort and luxury that the most fastidious can desire. Land travel on the other side is cheaper than in America, but the accommodations are much simpler. In America a young woman with slender purse must travel first class and pay $2 for every night spent in a sleeper. In England she may travel third class at a much reduced fare, on the continent second class, and it is but seldom night travel is necessary, for distances between cities and points of interest are short.

The cost of a summer tour varies with the purse and the inclination of the individual. The economical young woman decides before she leaves home how much she dare spend. If she travels with a party organized by one of the large, reliable tourist agencies, a fixed price is paid for the entire journey.

By a first class steamer the price is higher. The fixed price, which is paid before starting, includes all traveling expenses from New York back to New York—steamship and railroad fares, transportation of the usual amount of baggage, omnibus between stations, piers and hotels, hotel bills, fees to hotel servants, railroad porters—and the services of an experienced conductor who takes you sightseeing according to a settled programme, paying expenses, etc. These excursion prices do not include stewards' fees on an ocean steamer and expenses of carriages, guides or sightseeing when not ordered by the conductor. Personally conducted tours, when managed by a competent conductor or with a party not too large, composed of people of the same grade socially, are enjoyable and advantageous to the tourist, for he is relieved of all the responsibility and anxiety incident to foreign travel, with the constant change of language and customs. No time is wasted, only places and objects of importance and interest are visited and no time is spent in places without interest to the tourist. However, it would be well for those intending to join such a party to investigate carefully the reliability of the firm or individual with whom they intend to travel, since certain returning parties have very unhappy tales to tell of the way they were herded and conducted like "dumb driven cattle" far from their "native land."—Chicago Evening Post.

No Fun in New Clothes.

Sister—There! You have candy all over your new suit! What will mamma say?

Little Brother—Well, mamma won't let me have any fun in these clothes till I get 'em spoiled."—Golden Days.

A PURITAN THANKSGIVING.

The Model Bill of Fare For Their Annual Feast.

We have no record of just how the Puritans' Thanksgiving tables were set, but from contemporaneous pictures we can judge that there were few, if any, forks, each guest being supplied with a knife. They sat on benches and chests, ate from pewter platters, and the table was in most cases literally a board placed on wooden horses. They had few chairs or tables, but were plentifully supplied with chests containing their linen and wardrobes, and these served in the place of chairs. In later colonial times chairs and tables became more plentiful and forks were more common, but all preferred to eat with their knives on account of the dangerous, sharp, steel points of the two pronged forks. The table and dishes were arranged as follows:

THANKSGIVING DINNER OF 1730.

FIRST COURSE.

At the upper end of your table a pike roasted with a pudding within it, which you must afterward remove (not the pudding, but the fish), for your gravy, scoup (brown soup).

Under that a venison patty and

Under that a giblet pye.

On the further side of which place a fine boiled pudding (a really poly or suet pudding). On the nearer side of the giblet pye place some Scotch collops; croquettes of larded veal fried in butter and served with spiced oyster sauce flavored with white wine.

At the bottom of the table place a dish of roast beef, with horse radish and pickles round.

SECOND COURSE.

At the upper end of the table a turkey roasted, with an oyster pudding within it.

Under that a tansy (a sort of baked custard) garnished with orange. On the further side place a hare, with savory pudding. On the nearer side woodcocks with toast.

And at the bottom of the table place a pumpkin pye.

—Boston Herald.

The most extensive wine cellar in the world is owned by the Roumanian government. A railway tunnel 2,600 feet long between Galtz and Barbosh could not be used for railroad purposes because of inferior construction. Its cost was nearly 4,000,000 francs. It was leased to a wine dealer, who has turned it into an immense wine cellar.

The First National Bank

OF EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

DAVID BOYCE, President.
J. M. KELLY, Vice President.
N. G. MACRUM, Cashier.
H. H. BLYTHE, Assistant Cashier.

Board of Directors:
David Boyce, W. L. Thompson.
J. M. Kelly, O. C. Vodrey.
Robert Hall, B. C. Simms.
John C. Thompson.

Capital.....$100,000
Surplus.....40,000

GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS

Invite Business and Personal Accounts

Safety Deposit Boxes for Rent.

193 Washington Street.

W. L. Douglas $3 Shoe.

Stylish, durable, perfect fitting. Endorsed by over 1,000,000 wearers.

W. L. Douglas $3.50, $4.00 and $5.00 Shoes are the productions of skilled workmen, from the best material possible at these prices. Also $2.50 and $2 Shoes for Men, $2.50, $2 and $1.75 Boys

We use only the best Calf. Russia Calf. French Patent Calf. French Enamel, Vici Kid, etc., graded to correspond with prices of the shoes. If dealer cannot supply you, write Catalog free. W. L. DOUGLAS, Brockton, Mass. SOLD BY

J. R. WARNER & CO.

$500 Reward!

WE will pay the above reward for any case of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Indigestion, Constipation or Costiveness we can cure with West's Vegetable Liver Pills, which the directions are strictly complied with. They are purely Vegetable, and never fail to give satisfaction. Sugar Coated. Large boxes, 25 cents. Beware of counterfeits and imitations. The genuine manufactured only by THE JOHN C. WEST COMPANY, CHICAGO, ILL.

For sale at Will Reed, East Liverpool, O.

LADIES DO YOU KNOW DR. FELIX LE BRUN'S Steel & Pennyroyal Pills are the original and only FRENCH, safe and reliable cure on the market. Price, $1.00; sent by mail. Genuine sold only by* For sale by Will Reed, East Liverpool, Ohio.

HE NEWS REVIEW PRESS.

Finest Print Shop IN EASTERN OHIO

We Print Everything

From an Election Sticker to a 3-Sheet Poster.

HIGH GRADE COLOR PRINTING, ART CATALOGUES, EMBOSSED, HALF TONE WORK, IM. LITHOGRAPHY, IM. TYPE WRITER, &c, &c, &c.

WE AIM TO DO CAREFUL, CORRECT PRINTING; TO MAKE SOMETHING ATTRACTIVE.

OUR WORK EMBRACES CARDS, LETTER HEADS, INVOICE SHEETS, INVITATIONS, FOLDERS, CIRCULARS, BILLS, &c.

Book Work.

No matter what the size or class of job, with our facilities we can compete with the world in quality of work and price.

Our Type.

Customers may have the benefit of a large assortment of borders, ornaments, initials, etc. Every new face of type patented always finds room in our job department. None but first-class printers are employed, which means the best possible results obtainable from the material.

Our Presses.

The "Century" Pony for high grade book and half tone work (finest machine manufactured). Improved Gordons for commercial work, and a large Babcock for poster printing; presided over by a pressman late in charge of the finest presses in one of the largest printing houses in the world.

In a Nut Shell

High Wages, Fine Equipment, Artistic Workmen Tells the Story.

HE NEWS REVIEW PRESS.

VERY NEAR TO DEATH

Secretary Charles May Not Live Through the Day.

HIS BROTHER IS WITH HIM

The Attack of Typhoid Fever Developed Into Something Much More Serious Than Was Expected—He Has Been Delirious. Hospital Criticized.

There are a great many people who will hear this evening with deepest sorrow that William H. Charles, secretary of the Young Men's Christian association, is lying at the Allegheny General hospital, expected by his nurse and physicians to die at any minute.

After Mr. Charles recovered from his late illness he was able to look after his duties for a few days, and then the developed symptoms of a relapse. He stayed bravely by his duty, however, until it was evident that he could no longer stand the strain. Acting on the advice of friends he decided to enter the hospital, a well known physician, not connected with that institution, being employed to attend him. He left here on the evening train expecting the doctor to meet him at the station, but when he arrived no doctor was there. Mr. Charles, being unacquainted with Pittsburgh, did not realize the task which lay before him when he set out to find the physician. Burdened with his valise and weakened by the disease the walk was far too great a strain, and when he reached the hospital, long after midnight, he was in a precarious condition.

Mr. Charles was at once put to bed, and from that hour has been in a dangerous condition. It was repeatedly given out that he was getting along as well as could be expected, and for that they are severely criticized. He is in charge of one of the best nurses, and is of course receiving every care and attention. His brother arrived from Utica this morning. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Roberts were at the hospital yesterday, and only after a great deal of urging could they obtain permission to see him. He was at that time very low, and only recognized them for a few minutes.

The News Review telephoned to the hospital, this morning, and learned that Mr. Charles' condition was unchanged. He had passed a bad night.

BIBLE OR ANTI BIBLE.

A Voter and Tax Payer Discusses This Important Subject.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW—The feeling which now appears to exist in this community in regard to the election of superintendent for the public schools does not, it is said, involve the question of the Bible in the schools. Two years ago, or about that time, the then existing board of education and the present superintendent were charged with opposing the Bible in the schools and with discharging two teachers for persisting in reading the Bible in their school rooms, in defiance of the orders of the superintendent. That same superintendent now, in his report to the present board of education, and his address to the graduating class, claims to be for the Bible, first, last and all the time, in the schools and out of the schools. Presto change. There is a superintendent to be elected this year. I do not pretend to say whether that oldboard of education was guilty, as charged, of opposing the Bible in the schools, or not. They claim "not guilty," and an appeal to the public, about a year ago, or a little over, on that question, in the election of members of the board of education, resulted in the defeat of those of the old board who were candidates for re-election.

If the present superintendent was compelled by the board of education to discharge those teachers, and practically prohibit the use of the Bible in the schools, against his opinion of the proper use of the Bible in the schools, as he expresses himself at the present time, then he should be considered a martyr to thus violate his opinions in regard to the bible for $1900 a year. Possibly, if those candidates who were defeated for re-election two years ago, had come out in public speeches and documents and declared that they loved the Bible, in schools and out of the schools, and that they would have nothing but Bible in theirs, they would have been re-elected. Mr. Editor, please turn on more light.

A VOTER.

Likes the News Review.

Miss M. Belle Azdell writes to the News Review as follows from her home in Denver, Col:

"We look each day for our home paper; it is a daily letter to us from home. It seems as if we could not get along without the News Review."

CORBETT AND O'ROURKE.

It Was Not a Fight, but There Were Some Symptoms.

A difference that might have resulted in a scuffling encounter between Jim Corbett and Eugene O'Rourke started shortly after 4 o'clock on a recent morning in Martin's oyster house, Broadway, near Fortieth street, New York.

"Pompador Jim" entered the restaurant accompanied by Arthur Moore, "Honest" John Kelly, Eugene O'Rourke, Billy Brady and a number of other sports who have been associated with the Californian during the past two years, and the entire party drank foaming beakers of seductive fizz. The conversation naturally turned to the veriscope reproductions of the battle at Carson City, and the sporting men around the table expressed their opinions of the fight as projected on canvas.

O'Rourke's remarks were offensive to the ex-champion, and the former finally arose from the table, saying:

"Jim, I'll kill you, anyhow."

"No, you won't. You don't mean that," said the pugilist as he jumped to his feet and clasped O'Rourke around the body.

Friends separated the would be fighters, and after harmony had been restored and healths pledged again Corbett and O'Rourke left the place arm in arm, vowing eternal friendship.

WHEELMEN MUST DISMOUNT

Damages Not Allowed For One Who Did Not and Was Killed.

A man on a bicycle came to a railroad crossing where there were four tracks. A freight train was passing, and he could not cross. He did not dismount, but rode round in a circle several times. As the last car passed he started across and was killed by a train moving in the opposite direction, but which he could not see while riding round.

A suit was brought for damages, and the supreme court of Georgia has just delivered its decision denying the right of the heirs to damages. Justice Miller, delivering the opinion, said that the deceased should have dismounted and taken reasonable precautions himself. Circling round and round did not constitute a legal stop, according to the court.

"Considering the case of dismounting and the control of the rider over his instrument, a bicyclist must, under all ordinary circumstances, be treated as subject to the same rules as a pedestrian. He must dismount or at least bring his wheel to such a stop as will enable him to look up and down the track and listen in the manner required of a pedestrian."—Atlanta Constitution.

PUBLIC PRINTER PUZZLED.

Government Printing Office Found Itself Short of Funds.

The policy of inaction in the national house of representatives is likely to cause some annoyance to employees in the government printing office. The senate, on the representation of the public printer that there was only a little money on hand, promptly passed a joint resolution making an appropriation of $225,000, which it was expected the house would consider at once. But no opportunity was given, and upon the first vote being taken, the house being without a quorum, adjournment followed.

Mr. Palmer states that the office will be seriously hampered if this money, or a portion of it at least, is not made immediately available. An effort will be made to have the committee on rules bring in an order for the consideration of the joint resolution, for it is already known that objection will be made to its consideration by unanimous consent.—Washington Post.

Dynamite Thawed Too Fast.

At Hermantown, seven miles from Duluth, recently Frank Lucek, a farmer living there, was thawing some dynamite to be used in clearing land of stumps. He was heating it over a fire, when it exploded, tearing the house almost to pieces and killing Lucek and two young sons. Another boy was blown through a window. Mrs. Lucek was injured and what remained of the house caught fire and was destroyed. The mother and son were brought to Duluth and are in the hospital here. The boy may die, but the mother will recover.

Forged Her Mother's Name.

Ellen Cadman, the 15-year-old daughter of Mrs. L. A. Cadman of Chattanooga, was arrested recently at the instance of her mother on a charge of forgery. The young lady had cashed checks to the amount of $80 purporting to have been signed by her mother. A friend of the girl, in order to save her from spending the night in the city jail, made up the amount, and she was released. The girl is very handsome and unusually bright for one of her age. The mother and daughter were later reconciled.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Mr. Bryan in Washington.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—W. J. Bryan paid a hurried visit to Washington, arriving here from New York and leaving for Norfolk, Va. There were many callers at the hotel where Mr. Bryan stopped. He attended service at the New York Avenue Presbyterian church and later in the day dined with Senator Jones, the chairman of the national Democratic committee.

CHEAP TRIP ABROAD.

MANY TAKE ADVANTAGE OF SUMMER RATES AND GO TO EUROPE.

Journey Need Not Be Expensive—Persons of Moderate Means May Travel Comfortably and at Little Cost—Several Sorts of Tours That Offer Themselves.

Judging from the number of passages engaged at the various steamship offices, the annual summer begira of American travelers to the shores of the old world will be greater numerically this year than it was last season. The hard times apparently have no effect on this class of tourists. The majority of June and July tourists come from the ranks of the professional classes, public school-teachers, college professors and the clerical calling availing themselves of the long vacation to travel.

The objection is raised that many millions of hard earned American dollars are carried out of the country and spent abroad and that the truly patriotic citizen would better visit the wonders of his native land first and circulate his money among his compatriots, but that is a mere matter of opinion. In America we have magnificent distances and sublime nature unadorned, while in Europe there is not so much of this, but the remains of much that the human race has accomplished in architecture and art and glimpses of the most advanced state of civilization to which man has attained.

It is worth a trip across the Atlantic to visit London. The Murillos, Raphaels and hundreds of other masterpieces of the National gallery give an education in art which cannot be duplicated in this country. The British museum is a treasure house stored with material more than a man can exhaust in a lifetime. Westminster abbey is near by, with its honored dead, and not far away the Tower of London, peopled with memories of the great, the good and the innocent, and in the cemetery attached to the ancient chapel of St. Peter are the remains of Lady Jane Grey, Sir Walter Raleigh, Anne Boleyn, Sir Thomas More and Lord Somerset. But visit these time honored historical places, and both history and literature are vitalized, allusions hitherto unnoticed spring to life on the printed page, and the understanding is both quickened and enriched.

At first thought a trip to Europe appears like an extravagant undertaking, but a little careful estimating of expenses proves that the European tour costs no more than the same amount of travel in America. The trip from Chicago to New York by any first class railroad costs $23 for fare; sleeper, $5; meals, $3; total, $31—for two days' travel. An ocean greyhound charges $75 for six days' travel, a slower boat $60 for ten days' travel, including every comfort and luxury that the most fastidious can desire. Land travel on the other side is cheaper than in America, but the accommodations are much simpler. In America a young woman with slender purse must travel first class and pay $2 for every night spent in a sleeper. In England she may travel third class at a much reduced fare, on the continent second class, and it is but seldom night travel is necessary, for distances between cities and points of interest are short.

The cost of a summer tour varies with the purse and the inclination of the individual. The economical young woman decides before she leaves home how much she dare spend. If she travels with a party organized by one of the large, reliable tourist agencies, a fixed price is paid for the entire journey.

By a first class steamer the price is higher. The fixed price, which is paid before starting, includes all traveling expenses from New York back to New York—steamship and railroad fares, transportation of the usual amount of baggage, omnibus between stations, piers and hotels, hotel bills, fees to hotel servants, railroad porters—and the services of an experienced conductor who takes you sightseeing according to a settled programme, paying expenses, etc. These excursion prices do not include stewards' fees on an ocean steamer and expenses of carriages, guides or sightseeing when not ordered by the conductor. Personally conducted tours, when managed by a competent conductor or with a party not too large, composed of people of the same grade socially, are enjoyable and advantageous to the tourist, for he is relieved of all the responsibility and anxiety incident to foreign travel, with the constant change of language and customs. No time is wasted, only places and objects of importance and interest are visited and no time is spent in places without interest to the tourist. However, it would be well for those intending to join such a party to investigate carefully the reliability of the firm or individual with whom they intend to travel, since certain returning parties have very unhappy tales to tell of the way they were herded and conducted like "dumb driven cattle" far from their "native land."—Chicago Evening Post.

No Fun in New Clothes.

Sister—There! You have candy all over your new suit! What will mamma say?

Little Brother—Well, mamma won't let me have any fun in these clothes till I get 'em spoiled."—Golden Days.

A PURITAN THANKSGIVING.

The Model Bill of Fare For Their Annual Feast.

We have no record of just how the Puritans' Thanksgiving tables were set, but from contemporaneous pictures we can judge that there were few, if any, forks, each guest being supplied with a knife. They sat on benches and chests, ate from pewter platters, and the table was in most cases literally a board placed on wooden horses. They had few chairs or tables, but were plentifully supplied with chests containing their linen and wardrobes, and these served in the place of chairs. In later colonial times chairs and tables became more plentiful and forks were more common, but all preferred to eat with their knives on account of the dangerous, sharp, steel points of the two pronged forks. The table and dishes were arranged as follows:

THANKSGIVING DINNER OF 1730.

FIRST COURSE.

At the upper end of your table a pike roasted with a pudding within it, which you must afterward remove (not the pudding, but the fish), for your gravy, soup (brown soup). Under that a venison patty and Under that a giblet pte.

On the further side of which place a fine boiled pudding (a roly poly or suet pudding). On the nearer side of the giblet pte place some Scotch collops; croquettes of larded veal fried in butter and served with spiced oyster sauce flavored with white wine.

At the bottom of the table place a dish of roast beef, with horse radish and pickles round.

SECOND COURSE.

At the upper end of the table a turkey roasted, with an oyster pudding within it. Under that a tansy (a sort of baked custard) garnished with orange. On the further side place a hare, with savory pudding. On the nearer side woodcocks with toast.

And at the bottom of the table place a pumpkin pte.

—Boston Herald.

The most extensive wine cellar in the world is owned by the Roumanian government. A railway tunnel 2,600 feet long between Galtaz and Barbosh could not be used for railroad purposes because of inferior construction. Its cost was nearly 4,000,000 francs. It was leased to a wine dealer, who has turned it into an immense wine cellar.

The First National Bank

OF EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

DAVID BOYCE, President.
J. M. KELLY, Vice President.
N. G. MACRUM, Cashier.
H. H. BLYTHE, Assistant Cashier.

Board of Directors:
David Boyce. W. L. Thompson.
J. M. Kelly. O. C. Vodrey.
Robert Hall. B. C. Simms.
John C. Thompson.

Capital.....$100,000
Surplus.....40,000

GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS

Invite Business and Personal Accounts

Safety Deposit Boxes for Rent.

193 Washington Street.

W. L. Douglas $3 Shoe.

Stylish, durable, perfect fitting. Endorsed by over 1,000,000 wearers.

W. L. Douglas $3.50, $4.00 and $5.00 Shoes are the productions of skilled workmen, from the best material possible at these prices. Also $2.50 and $2 Shoes for Men, $2.50, $2 and $1.75 Boys

We use only the best Calf, Russia Calf, French Patent Calf, French Enamel, Vici Kid, etc., graded to correspond with prices of the shoes. If dealer cannot supply you, write

Catalog free. W. L. DOUGLAS, Brockton, Mass.

J. R. WARNER & CO.

$500 Reward!

WE will pay the above reward for any case of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Indigestion, Constipation or Costiveness we can cure with West's Vegetable Liver Pills, which are the directions are strictly complied with. They are purely Vegetable, and never fail to give satisfaction. Sugar Coated. Large boxes, 25 cents. Beware of counterfeits and imitations. The genuine manufactured only by THE JOHN C. WEST COMPANY, CHICAGO, ILL.

For sale at Will Reed, East Liverpool, O.

LADIES DO YOU KNOW
DR. FELIX LE BRUN'S
Steel & Pennyroyal Pills are the original and only FRENCH, safe and reliable cure on the market. Price, $1.00; sent by mail. Genuine sold only by.

HE NEWS REVIEW PRESS.

Finest Print Shop IN EASTERN OHIO

We Print Everything

From an Election Sticker to a 3-Sheet Poster.

HIGH GRADE

COLOR PRINTING, ART CATALOGUES, EMBOSSED, HALF TONE WORK, IM. LITHOGRAPHY, IM. TYPE WRITER, &c, &c, &c.

WE AIM TO DO CAREFUL, CORRECT PRINTING; TO MAKE SOMETHING ATTRACTIVE.

OUR WORK EMBRACES CARDS, LETTER HEADS, INVOICE SHEETS, INVITATIONS, FOLDERS, CIRCULARS, BILLS, &c.

Book Work.

No matter what the size or class of job, with our facilities we can compete with the world in quality of work and price.

Our Type.

Customers may have the benefit of a large assortment of borders, ornaments, initials, etc. Every new face of type patented always finds room in our job department. None but first-class printers are employed, which means the best possible results obtainable from the material.

Our Presses.

The "Century" Pony for high grade book and half tone work (finest machine manufactured). Improved Gordons for commercial work, and a large Babcock for poster printing; presided over by a pressman late in charge of the finest presses in one of the largest printing houses in the world.

In a Nut Shell

High Wages, Fine Equipment, Artistic Workmen Tells the Story.

HE NEWS REVIEW PRESS.

WINNIE IS NOW WINNING

He Seems to Have Struck a Streak.

SMITH'S FERRY WENT DOWN

Before the Assaults of the East End Team, Eclipse Was Defeated at Toronto—There Will Be a Good Game at Rock Spring Tomorrow.

The East End ball club Saturday afternoon went to Smith's Ferry, and covered themselves with glory by defeating the home team 10 to 9. The heavy hitting of George Anderson was the principal feature of the game.

Winnie Mercer has commenced to win games, and Saturday held the Pittsburgh team down to seven hits, winning the game by 4 to 2. He did not pitch the best ball in the world, and had one assist, one error, struck out seven men, hit four men and gave one base on balls.

The Eclipse team met defeat Saturday afternoon, in Toronto by a score of 16 to 6.

The arrangements for the ball game at the library picnic have been completed, and the picked nine will have among its members Neddie Hanlon, one of the most popular ball players that ever wore a uniform in this city. He will play middle field and catch part of the game.

Picked nine	Pos.	East Liverpool
Chambers.....	catcher.....	Davis
McCurran.....	pitcher.....	Albright
Wallace.....	first base.....	Frey
Webber.....	second base.....	Kennedy
Lynch.....	third base.....	Clark
Reark.....	short.....	Smurthwaite
Jobbling.....	left.....	McCurran
Hanlon.....	middle.....	Reark
McNicol.....	right.....	Barker

AT CLARKSON.

Yesterday Was For the Children—They Enjoyed It.

The superintendent of the Sabbath school had control at the Clarkson church yesterday, and there was an immense crowd present, coming in vehicles from far and from near. Singing by the well-trained choir was a very pleasing feature of the occasion, while the scholars did themselves proud in recitations and service of song. The pastor of the church addressed the youngsters, showing the importance of avoiding bad conduct and bad language, and of killing such traits before they grew beyond control, illustrating his subject by the use of appropriate words upon the blackboard, and further illustrating the power of little things in forming the greater by having a bright little maiden come upon the platform, first binding her with small cord, which she broke with the greatest ease, and finally entangling her form with a rope, which held her arms imprisoned, despite all her efforts. After services the baskets were passed around for "offerings" for missions, and hearty responses were made. Children's day at Clarkson was a great success.

BEAUTIFUL FLOWERS.

They Were Tributes From Mrs. Ogden's Friends.

The funeral of Mrs. C. B. Ogden yesterday afternoon was one of the largest ever held in the city. Services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Lee and Rev. Dr. Taggart and a quartet made up of Miss Alice Goodwin, Miss Laughlin, Professor Harper and M. E. Golding sang beautifully "Nearer My God to Thee," "Jesus Lover of My Soul," and "Some Sad Sweet Day." Doctor Andrews, Doctor Norris, B. C. Simms, Doctor Ikert, Doctor Hobbs and George Goodwin were the pallbearers. The Eastern Star, of which Mrs. Ogden was an honored member, attended the services. The flowers were abundant and very beautiful.

FELL OFF THE STEPS.

A Peculiar Accident to a West End Woman.

Mrs. Albert Pearce, of Lisbon road, met with an accident Saturday evening. Her three-year-old daughter in coming up the steps which lead to the house tripped and fell. The mother went to the head of the steps, and in stooping down her dress caught and she pitched headlong over the child and fell, alighting in the gutter unconscious. She was carried into the house, where it was found she had received no serious injuries. The child fell over the side of the steps into the grass and escaped injury.

May Have a Meeting.

From the outlook it is probable the sewer commissioners will hold a meeting some time this week. There is a lot of work to be attended to, and the members are anxious that it be done.

Lamp Snakes.

There is in Natal—or at least so the natives say—a kind of snake which, if its domestication were possible, might make less important the question of municipal gas works. For this serpent, according to the stories told about it, is provided with an illuminating apparatus beside which that of other light bearing creatures, including men with lanterns, is hardly worth consideration. The reptile is supposed to frequent swamps or lakes, and it is of a size so vast that on an occasion when one of the species was attacked and killed by a Boer hunting party its carcass filled two wagons. In fact, the animal's proportions are almost monstrous. The light emitted by this unmonster is said to be bright and dazzling in the extreme and easily discerned from a distance of several miles.

Some of the negroes call the snake "umningi," while by others it is known as the "ivimbela," a name also applied to a serpent whose dwelling is in the sea, and whose powers, though great and marvelous, are not displayed in lakes and rivers or fraught with magic light. No European traveler has ever seen one of these snakes, but the Zulus declare that they are not uncommon in the pools of the Umvoti river, and that they are white in color, except for a few brown patches. It is thought by some that these tales may have a foundation in fact, as there are great brimstone caves in parts of Natal, and in them there may be a phosphorescent fauna not yet studied or even seen by civilized men. Another peculiar inhabitant of the same region—still on native authority—is the "intokoloh," It is a species of dwarf or manikin, akin in its attributes to the yahoo of Dean Swift, is amphibious like the lamp snake and bears a character not unblemished. —New York Times.

Grant's Big Heart.

General Grenville Dodge, who was with Grant all through the war, and who both before and after that period was civil engineer for the Northern Pacific railroad, told a little story illustrating the spontaneous kindness and thoughtfulness of Grant when a young man. Many years before the war he was sent to Oregon as lieutenant, and while at Vancouver started out one evening in company with Rufus Ingalls to ride to Williamhamite for the purpose of calling upon some young ladies visiting there.

"When they had covered about half the distance, they came upon a poor emigrant, whose heavily loaded wagon had become hopelessly stuck in the mud. The young men, of course, stopped. After looking over the situation, Lieutenant Grant said to Mr. Ingalls: "What can we do to help this poor fellow out?"

His companion did not seem to think that anything could be done. But after a moment's consideration Grant silently dismounted, offered his horse to the stranger in distress and gave him a few concise directions as to how to extricate himself. Then telling the grateful emigrant where to deliver the horse over to him at Williamhamite, he continued his journey—still a distance of seven or eight miles—on foot. —Atlanta Constitution.

One of the Family.

It may interest some of our readers to glance through this short characteristic sketch of James Seymour, born in London in 1702, which is longer memoirs. The fact that he displayed a fondness for drawing and painting in boyhood and subsequently gained celebrity by his skill in designing horses is too well known to comment upon. Once the proud Duke of Somerset employed Seymour to paint a room at his seat in Sussex, with the portraits of his sitting horses. Having admitted the artist to his table, he one day drank to him, saying:

"Cousin Seymour, your health." The painter replied, "My lord, I really believe that I have the honor of being of your grace's family."

This hurt the pride of the duke so much that he rose from the table and ordered his steward to pay Seymour and dismiss him. Finding, however, that no one in England could complete the pictures begun, he condescended to send for his cousin. The painter responded to the message in these words:

"My lord, I will now prove that I am of your grace's family, for I won't come." —Harper's Round Table.

Learning by Experience.

As we look at young men and women just entering consciously the world of self directed activity it seems easy to advise them. The desire to do so is often irresistible, and justly so. We must say to them from our own experience the words that ought to help them avoid the mistakes that we have made and to hold fast the blessings that we have let slip. Yet they must live their own lives, and of all we can ever say they can use only that which really belongs to them and has become a part of their own minds and wills. —Christian Register.

James Crichton, better remembered as "the Admirable Crichton," could read, write and dispute in 12 different languages. He was an expert swordsman, a civil and military engineer, a mathematician, a dramatist, and although but 23 years old at the time of his death he was the master of all the science and learning of his age.

A Pretty Resort.

A sojourn at Winona Assembly Grounds at Eagle Lake, Ind., near Warsaw, on the Fort Wayne route, will prove a pleasant summer outing. This delightful resort is the site of the youngest of the Chautauqua assemblies, and its attractions combine facilities for recreation, entertainment, instruction and devotion.

Eagle Lake is a beautiful sheet of water, surrounded by several hundred acres of romantic woodland which covers one stretch of nearly two miles. The lake affords opportunity for aquatic pastimes, the boating, bathing and fishing being excellent. In addition to numerous rowboats there are several pleasure steamers on the lake.

The pretty grounds are occupied by many shady cottages and summer homes of persons who annually enjoy the beauties of the place, strengthening body in the invigorating atmosphere and enriching the mind by the special advantages the summer school offers.

A fine park has been laid out on the shore of the lake. A large auditorium, amphitheatre, college halls, hotels and restaurant have also been constructed on the grounds for the accommodation of visitors. There is also a race track and space set aside for out-door athletic sports.

In addition to the Presbyterian General Assembly which will be in session on the Assembly Grounds from May 20 to June 2, a number of other large meetings will be held on the grounds during the summer of 1897, including the Indiana State Sunday School Convention, Western Association of Writers, Indiana State W. C. T. U., Indiana Y. M. C. A., Encampment, National Medical Society, Boys' Brigade, and Indiana State Christian Endeavor League.

Excursion tickets to Eagle Lake will be on sale via Pennsylvania Lines during the summer season. Details regarding rates, time of trains, etc., may be ascertained by addressing the nearest passenger or ticket agent of the Pennsylvania lines, or by applying to F. Van Dusen, chief assistant general passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa. Full information concerning the Assembly and Summer School, cost of entertainment, etc., may be secured upon application to Secretary Sol. C. Dickey, Eagle Lake, Ind. *

Art and the Ballet.

The possibilities for the attainment of a very real and solid artistic success in the direction of the ballet are not sufficiently noted in this country. While the ballet is not considered such an indispensable entree here as abroad, yet our national fondness for comic opera with spectacular choruses offers a demand that has but seldom been supplied with adequate skill. An occasional production has, it is true, exploited a bit of good taste; but, as a rule, American ballets, while expensive enough, are rather gaudy than gorgeous, lacking in unity of idea and maneuvered without much eye to effect.

The qualities that make ballet artistic success possible in the ballet make gross error more than probable. Success here demands ability both in the large and in the small. Working closely with his lieutenants, the designer of costumes and the dancing master, the director of the ballet must give each coryphée or each small group an individuality, and this must merge smoothly into the whole. The manipulation of a horde of dancers in whom unusual intelligence is rare and might be dangerous requires a skill in the movement of large numbers, a quick eye for effective evolutions, exact tactics that will bring the right body to the right place in the right way, and a presence of mind in emergencies that demands of the ballet director a generalship of limited range indeed, but of much acuteness and much responsibility. —Scribner's.

Arnold's Comment.

As school inspector Matthew Arnold was examining a class in geography one day, and holding up the poker with which he was about to stir the fire, he asked if any child could tell him where it was manufactured. There was a long silence, broken by the schoolmistress, who remarked nervously that such information was not mentioned in Cornwell's geography. "No," said Arnold; "Cornwell's an ass!" —San Francisco Argonaut.

Where the Trouble Was.

"Well, girl, Jack and I are to be married at last, and we are so happy." "Did you and Jack have some trouble in getting your father's consent?" "No, but papa and I had a lot of trouble in getting Jack's consent." —Pick Me Up.

Jr., O. U. A. M. Excursion.

To Pittsburg, June 13, 14 and 16, excursion tickets at one fare for the round trip will be sold from Alliance, Bellaire, Youngstown, Sharon, Cadiz, Dennison, Wheeling, New Cumberland, Washington, Pa., and intermediate ticket stations on the Pennsylvania lines, account Jr., O. U. A. M. daylight parade and general celebration. Excursion tickets will be good returning until June 17, inclusive. *

Low Rates.

Special reductions in fare over the Pennsylvania lines will be granted for numerous events to take place this summer in various parts of the United States, in addition to local excursions. Some of the dates to which tickets will be sold and points of sale are as follows:

To Nashville, Tenn., daily to October 15, for Tennessee Centennial and International exposition.

To Winona assembly grounds, Eagle Lake, (near Warsaw, Ind.,) May 15 to August 31, for annual assembly and summer school.

To Celeron (Chautauqua Lake,) July 11 and 12, account Photographers Association of America.

To Toronto, Canada, July 13, 14 and 15, for Edworth League National convention.

To Minneapolis, July 3 and 4, for national meeting, B. P. O. Elks.

To Chattanooga, July 13, 14 and 15, account Baptist Young Peoples' Union, of America.

To Detroit, July 12 and 13, for National Republican League meeting.

To Cincinnati, July 21 and 22, for German Epworth League meeting.

To Indianapolis, August 17 and 18, for Young People's Christian union annual convention.

To Indianapolis, September 8 and 9, for National Encampment Sons of Veterans.

The reduced rates over the Pennsylvania lines will not be restricted to members of the organizations mentioned, but may be taken advantage of by the public generally. Excursion tickets may be obtained at ticket offices on the Pennsylvania system and will also be sold over this route by connecting railways. Any Pennsylvania line ticket or passenger agent will furnish desired information concerning rates, time of trains, return limit, and other details, to all applicants, or the same may be obtained by addressing Samuel Moody, assistant general passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa.

New Entrance to New York.

All are convenient locations, Cortlandt street and Desbrosses street, in the downtown district, and Twenty-third street in the uptown district. The latter entrance will be formally opened May 16, when two new, commodious ferryboats, double-deckers, constructed especially for the Pennsylvania lines and furnished and fitted in up-to-date style, will be placed in service between the Jersey City station and Twenty-third street, connecting with all inbound and outbound trains over the Pennsylvania system, the same as the boats running between that station and Cortlandt street and Desbrosses street, which will also continue in the service.

The Pennsylvania lines' three entrances into New York's business portion to quickly reach the business portion in the lower end of the city, as well as the hotels and business blocks in the very heart of the great metropolis. The ride across the river is a delightful and refreshing termination to an enjoyable trip. All through trains from the west, over the Pennsylvania lines, land passengers in New York between 9:30 a. m., and 9:30 p. m., treating them to a grand view of the city's water front; its extensive docks where at almost any time may be seen ships of many nations. The wonderful panorama gives visitors a slight idea of the magnitude of New York. The new Twenty-third street ferry line is particularly noteworthy in this respect. *

Summe Outing.

The principal places of summer sojourn along the Atlantic ocean in the Alleghenies, the Adirondacks, Catskills, and mountains of the east, and in the lake region and Northern Michigan and the northwest, may be readily reached over the Pennsylvania lines.

Special information regarding the leading resorts and the advantages enjoyed in journeying to them over the Pennsylvania route has been compiled and printed in convenient form. The matter is profusely illustrated with photographic reproductions of seashore scenes and includes views at Atlantic City, Cape May, Long Beach and other resorts along the Atlantic coast; also of Cresson, Bedford Springs, and romantic mountain retreats, and of Petoskey, Mackinac, and the summer havens in Michigan and the northwest.

Persons contemplating summer outing trips will find it a valuable guide in shaping preliminaries. Copies may be obtained by addressing D. C. MacWaters, district passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa.

Excursion to Chillicothe.

June 14, 15 and 16, excursion tickets will be sold to Chillicothe, O., via Pennsylvania lines for annual encampment, G. A. R., Department of Ohio; return coupons valid June 19, inclusive. *

—Colonel Hill and George Brunt left Saturday for Zanesville on the Lorena.

Cleveland & Pittsburgh Div. Pennsylvania Lines.

Schedule of Passenger Trains—Central Time

Westward.		335	337	339	341	359
		AM	PM	AM	PM	AM	PM
Pittsburgh	lv	7:05	1:15	14:30	11:00	17:20
Rochester	"	7:00	1:10	14:30	11:00	17:20
Beaver	"	7:05	2:20
Vanport	"	7:09		14:31	11:58	18:32
Industry	"	7:20		14:45	12:10	18:42
Cooks Ferry	"	7:23		14:45	12:10	18:45
Smiths Ferry	"	7:35	2:40	14:50	12:15	18:55
East Liverpool	"	7:48	2:48	15:10	12:30	19:15
Wellsville	ar	7:58	2:55	15:25	12:40	19:15
Wellsville	lv	8:05	3:05	15:30	12:45
Wellsville Shop	"	8:09		15:32	12:50
Yellow Creek	"	8:15		15:37	12:55
Hammondsville	"	8:23		15:43	13:03
Irondale	"	8:26		15:46	13:06
Sallenville	"	8:42	3:38	15:50	13:10
Bayard	"	9:40	4:40	16:02	13:20
Alliance	ar	9:20	4:30
Ravenna	lv	10:05	5:58	16:15	13:35
Hudson	"	11:02	5:55	16:15	13:30
Cleveland	ar	12:10	6:35	16:40	14:30
Wellsville	lv	8:10	3:10	15:55	15:10
Wellsville Shop	"	8:15	3:13	15:58	15:10
Yellow Creek	"	8:21	3:18	16:04	15:11
Port Homer	"	8:27	3:23	16:09	15:16
Empire	"	8:34	3:28	16:14	15:21
Elliottsville	"	8:41	3:33	16:18	15:21
Toronto	"	8:45	3:38	16:22	15:21
Browns	"	8:58	4:00	16:35	15:45
Steuensville	ar	9:08	4:00	16:45	15:45
Mingo Je	lv	9:08	4:00	16:45	15:45
Brilliant	"	9:15	4:10	16:53	15:51
Rush Run	"	9:22	4:20	16:58	16:01
Portland	"	9:33	4:32	17:09	16:10
Yorkville	"	9:40	4:39	17:16	16:11
Marlins Ferry	"	9:45	4:46	17:20	16:12
Bridgeport	"	10:05	5:18	17:35	16:28
Bellaire	ar	10:15	5:20	17:45	16:28
		AM	PM	AM	PM
Eastward.		340	336	338	360	48
		AM	PM	AM	PM	AM	PM
Bellaire	ar	14:45	19:00	14:45	19:00	14:45	19:00
Bridgeport	"	14:50	19:05	14:50	19:05	14:50	19:05
Marlins Ferry	"	15:01	19:15	15:02	19:16	15:01	19:15
Yorkville	"	15:10		15:15		15:10
Portland	"	15:15	19:28	15:19	19:28	15:15	19:28
Rush Run	"	15:20	19:33	15:24	19:33	15:20	19:33
Brilliant	"	15:28	19:41	15:34	19:41	15:28	19:41
Mingo Je	"	15:35	19:48	15:41	19:48	15:35	19:48
Steuensville	ar	15:44	19:56	15:50	19:56	15:44	19:56
Browns	"	16:00	20:12	16:05	20:12	16:00	20:12
Toronto	"	16:07	20:19	16:11	20:19	16:07	20:19
Elliottsville	"	16:11	20:23
Empire	"	16:13	20:30	16:21	20:27
Port Homer	"	16:20	20:33
Yellow Creek	"	16:26	20:40
Wellsville Shop	"	16:30	20:45
Wellsville	ar	16:35	20:50	16:40	2:45
Wellsville	lv	8:05	3:05	15:27	12:45
Wellsville Shop	"	8:09	3:09	15:31	12:49
Yellow Creek	"	8:15	3:15	15:37	12:55
Hammondsville	"	8:23	3:23	15:45	13:03
Irondale	"	8:26	3:26	15:48	13:06
Sallenville	"	8:42	3:42	15:50	13:10
Bayard	"	9:40	4:40	16:02	13:20
Alliance	ar	9:20	4:30
Ravenna	lv	10:05	5:58	16:15	13:35
Hudson	"	11:02	5:55	16:15	13:30
Cleveland	ar	12:10	6:35	16:40	14:30
Wellsville	lv	8:45	11:00	6:51	3:10	3:50
East Liverpool	"	8:55	11:10	7:00	3:20	4:00
Smiths Ferry	"	9:05	11:20	7:08	3:30	4:10
Cooks Ferry	"	7:13	11:26		3:35	4:20
Industry	"	7:20	11:31	7:22	3:42	4:25
Vanport	"	7:34	11:45		3:55	4:40
Beaver	"	7:40	11:45		4:00	4:45
Rochester	"	7:50	11:50		4:10	4:55
Pittsburgh	ar	8:05	12:40	8:30	5:10	5:40

IMPORTANT TO ADVERTISERS.

Merchants and business men must have advertisements in this office on the evening previous to insertion in this paper. This rule is imperative, and is an absolute necessity resulting in good to paper and patron.

The largest bonafide "paid" general circulation of any daily published in East Liverpool. Advertisers will make note.
HARRY PALMER,
Manager.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

William Ferguson is celebrating his 21st anniversary today.

F. H. Sebring and family will move Thursday to Spring Grove.

Mrs. B. McGarry and Mrs. Mary De Temple left for Wheeling Saturday.

J. F. McDonald has been appointed postmaster at East Rochester, this county.

Mrs. Rabbit, of Akron, is dangerously ill. The lady is well and favorably known here.

R. W. Henderson, of Allegheny, and family have moved to this city. Their goods came today.

The china works is running full time, and it is probable there will be no shut-down for the Fourth.

Three fakirs attracted a large crowd in the Diamond Saturday evening. They did a small business.

Frank Crook, George C. Murphy, F. H. Croxall and Miss Pauline Crook drove to Lisbon today.

The annual picnic of the Cleveland and Pittsburg employees will be held July 17 at Brady's Lake.

Richard Edmonston has been elected steward of the Delmonica club, succeeding Tom Black, resigned.

A local firm sent 3,000 tomato plants to East Palestine this morning, and 7,000 more will be sent next week.

Detective Love, of the Panhandle route, will be transferred to the Cleveland and Pittsburg road, this week.

Children's day was generally observed in the city, yesterday. The programs were good and attracted large crowds.

The Seachrist family held their first reunion Sunday afternoon at Columbian, when 219 guests were present.

A lot of ware was shipped to the Oxford Orphan asylum, Oxford, N. C., this morning. The order was a large one.

Burford Brothers presented the firemen with a box of cigars and a check, this morning, for their service at the fire.

Saturday was a good day at the freight station. Twenty cars were loaded at the local sheds and 10 were unloaded.

Marshall Johnson is in Parkersburg attending the trial of the supposed counterfeiters. He left on the Virginia Saturday evening.

Mrs. Martha Trainer, of St. John street, yesterday afternoon was overcome by heat while attending the funeral of Mrs. C. B. Ogden.

The Knights of the Golden Eagle observed Decoration yesterday. Five graves were decorated, three in Spring Grove and two in Riverview.

Joe Smith was bound over to court Saturday afternoon in the sum of $200. He will be taken to Lisbon tomorrow unless the necessary bail is procured.

In his sermon at the First Presbyterian church, last night, Doctor Lee condemned flower thieves and spoke against Sunday concerts at Rock Spring.

Alvin H. Bulger went to Allegheny this afternoon to see Secretary Charles. That gentleman recognized his brother when he reached the hospital this morning.

But four offenders were before the mayor this morning. Colonel Parker paid $6.75 and John Moren put up $6.60. Bill Quinn and Jack Bailey failed to find the necessary $6.60 and are still lingering.

The backers of several prize fighters are in the city and from the outlook it seems that a fight will be pulled off near this place within a week or 10 days. They are not the parties who were here a month ago.

Saturday evening a picture agent caused consternation in an uptown poker room. He stumbled and fell, and the inmates thinking the police were at hand left the room, the majority of them walking over the agent.

Saturday afternoon a man was seen to put a small boy over the fence at the Bradshaw property, Fourth street, in order that he might obtain a buttonhole bouquet. A poor example to set the youngster, and a case for the police.

The Chester company have arranged to run cars tomorrow morning every 10 minutes, and in the afternoon trains made up of three or four cars will be run on the same schedule. Indications point to a large crowd at the library picnic.

PLUNDER OF PALACES

LOOTED ARTICLES AT QUEEN VICTORIA'S ROYAL RESIDENCES.

The Spoils of African and Indian Kings at Windsor Castle—The Crown of the Emperor of Abyssinia and the Kohinoor Diamond.

Queen Victoria is the most thoroughly respectable and the most God fearing of all the rulers of the earth, yet there is no person in the world who receives and retains under his roof a larger amount of stolen property. Windsor castle is filled from cellar to garret with loot and plunder of every kind, and the things for which she has no room there are distributed among her palaces at Osborne, Balmoral and in London. European wars and conflicts among civilized nations are not very profitable in this respect, and, in spite of the firm conviction to the contrary which prevails among the masses of the French people, there is not a single looted French clock to be found in any of the palaces of the emperor of Germany, the only bit of plunder which the old kaiser carried back with him to Berlin after the close of the war of 1870 being a small candlestick belonging to the palace of Versailles, of which he had made use throughout his stay, and which in former days had been similarly used by King Louis XIV of France. At the time of the old emperor's death in 1888 it was found on the little table beside his bedside at Berlin.

England's wars during the last 60 years, however, have been mostly with Asiatic and African potentates, and on the strength of the plea that it was necessary to "give the savages a lesson which they would remember" Queen Victoria's troops almost invariably have made it a point of sacking the palaces of the enemy's ruler, and it was lucky indeed for him if they did not burn his domicile to the ground. In order to avoid any awkward questions or remonstrances, the pick of the plunder always has been presented to her majesty, certain minor pieces being reserved for the Prince of Wales and for the cabinet ministers of the day.

It is thus that the queen has come into possession of the Kohinoor diamond, the most valuable in existence, which formerly belonged to the rulers of the Indian kingdom of Punjab. Priceless porcelain, silks, jade and cloisonne enamel represent her share in the loot of the summer palace of the emperor of China in 1864. At Windsor, too, are to be found the crown of Emperor Theodore of Abyssinia, taken after the storming of his stronghold of Magdala; the gold bracelets, amulets, collar and diadem of the two kings of Ashanti; while quite recently there have arrived at Windsor a large quantity of beautifully carved elephants' tusks, found in and about the palace of the African king of Benin when his capital was captured last spring by an English expeditionary force under Admiral Rawson.

India, of course, is largely represented in the collection of plunder at Windsor castle, and some of the finest pieces of plate and jeweled ornaments, including a superb tiger's head composed entirely of rubies, sapphires and diamonds, have come to her majesty from the treasure house of this or that once powerful oriental potentate, whose dominions she has annexed during the course of her threescore years' reign.

Queen Victoria probably would feel horrified at the idea of accepting any article of value that had been stolen from a European sovereign (barring the sultan). But somehow or other the potentates and rulers of Asia and of Africa seemed to her to be perfectly fair game, people whom it is quite Christian to plunder and to deprive of their most treasured possessions.

It is inconsistent and not quite in accordance with the teachings of the Bible, but, after all, it is in keeping with what her ancestors did before her, for on state occasions the great sideboard in the Waterloo gallery of Windsor castle is weighted down with vast quantities of gold and silver plate, much of which was originally destined and even used for sacramental purposes of the church and which constituted part of the plunder of those British buccaneers and pirates of the Elizabethan and Stuart era who roamed the seas in search of Spain's treasure ships, plundering and sacking the cities and churches of what used to be known in those days as the Spanish main.—Marquis de Fontenoy in Chicago Record.

Following Precedent.

"I'm too practical to do as heroes do in books, Miss Slight, so I'll just ask you bluntly, will you be my wife?"

"No, thank you, Mr. Terse. I myself don't believe in those silly, bookish notions, and as the silly heroines always say yes, why, I'll tell you bluntly, no, sir, I won't."—Philadelphia North American.

It was the belief of Livingstone that nearly all lions were "left handed." He watched them closely, and when they desired to strike a fierce blow they always used the left paw.

The popular belief that the sap of trees goes down into the roots in winter and rises again in the spring is false.

D. M. OGILVIE & CO.

"Matches" Hosiery.

A new lot within the last few days. Those goods need no recommendation to people who have used them, but for fear you haven't been buying hose as good we mention them. At 25c fast black, 3-thread sole, double heel and toes in black, black with white feet, ox blood, tan, brown and cream color. Better goods and the same as have sold at 50c per pair, at 3 pairs for $1, just 3 pairs in a box, and we guarantee satisfaction. Cheaper hose in ladies at 10c, in all colors, and black at 15c, or 2 pairs for 25c.

Children's hose, fast black, in ribbed and plain goods, at 10c, 15c and 25c. Boys' heavy hose, such as will stand the hard wear a boy gives, at 10c, 15c and 25c. Men's half hose at 10c, 15c and 25c, in all sizes and colors. Men's three-quarter hose, fast black, 25c.

Summer Dress Goods.

PLAIN WHITE LAWNS at 6½c, 8c, 10c, 12½c, and up to 40c a yard.

DIMITIES, white, in checks and stripes, at 10c, and up to 35c.

NAINSOOKS in checks and stripes, at 5c, and all prices up to 25c. Plain white ORGANDIES at 25c, 50c and 75c. Nainsooks at 12½c, 18c, 25c and 75c per yard.

EMBROIDERIES, narrow and wide, at prices from 5c to 50c.

IMPORTED ORGANDIES, pretty colorings, at $4.50 and $5 per pattern of 12 yards. Organdies, very nice goods, at 25c, dark and light colors.

DIMITIES and LAWNS at 15c and 18c.

Other wash goods in all the new colorings and styles at 5c, 10c and 12½c.

A Few Offerings.

SEPARATE SKIRTS that have been $5 and $6, including novelties, in brown, blue and black; also checks in all colors, at $3.75.

CRASH SUITS, latest styles, perfect fitting, and cheaper than you could make them, $5.

CRASH SKIRTS, of which we have sold a great many, well made, good fitting, latest style, $1.50.

NEW BELTS in red, green, black and white, at 25c, 30c and 50c.

SHIRT WAISTS, all the new things in Organdies, lawns and percale. Prices 50c, $1 and $1.25.

FANCY RIBBONS, cheaper than you have ever bought them. Almost all colors in wide ribbons, just the thing for trimming wash goods, etc., at 25c.

HENDERSON'S SUMMER CORSETS, all sizes, at 50c, not the kind generally offered at this price, but first class goods. Better ones at $1.

D. M. OGILVIE & CO.

WORTHY OF YOUR CONSIDERATION

Is this little picture. It illustrates the light running rotary shuttle. Let us sell you a Standard Sewing Machine, the cheapest because the best.

SMITH & PHILLIPS.

East Liverpool, Ohio.

PURE BLOOD

Our Sarsaparilla is the VERY BEST.

At 69 cents a Bottle.

Very Best Beef, Iron, And Wine,

Large Bottles 50 Cents,

At Will Reeds', The Druggist.

A Liberal Discount

made to all our patrons and friends on all optical goods from now until July 10, at which time I leave for New York to further advance myself in the optical profession.

Have Your Eyes Examined by the latest appliance for correction of defective vision by the Prismo-meter.

Examination Free!

JNO. M. MCKINNEY, Dr. of Ophthal.

Cameras

Kodak, Premo's, Quad, Dry Plates, Solutions, Etc.,

Everything used in Amateur Photography.

Hodson's Drug Store, BROADWAY.

Solid Spoons Silver

Pearl Handled Knives and Forks and Sterling Silver Novelties at....

Wade's, The Jeweler.

Dr. Geo. D. Arnum, Surgeon Dentist,

Specialties: Crown and Bridge Work, and Preservation of the Natural Teeth. Syndicate Bldg., Sixth St.

IMPORTANT TO ADVERTISERS.

Merchants and business men must have advertisements in this office on the evening previous to insertion in this paper. This rule is imperative, and is an absolute necessity resulting in good to paper and patron.

The largest bonafide "paid" general circulation of any daily published in East Liverpool. Advertisers will make note.
HARRY PALMER,
Manager.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

William Ferguson is celebrating his 21st anniversary today.

F. H. Sebring and family will move Thursday to Spring Grove.

Mrs. B. McGarry and Mrs. Mary De Temple left for Wheeling Saturday.

J. F. McDonald has been appointed postmaster at East Rochester, this county.

Mrs. Rabbit, of Akron, is dangerously ill. The lady is well and favorably known here.

R. W. Henderson, of Allegheny, and family have moved to this city. Their goods came today.

The china works is running full time, and it is probable there will be no shut-down for the Fourth.

Three fakirs attracted a large crowd in the Diamond Saturday evening. They did a small business.

Frank Crook, George C. Murphy, F. E. Croxall and Miss Pauline Crook drove to Lisbon today.

The annual picnic of the Cleveland and Pittsburg employes will be held July 17 at Brady's Lake.

Richard Edmonston has been elected steward of the Delmonica club, succeeding Tom Black, resigned.

A local firm sent 3,000 tomato plants to East Palestine this morning, and 7,000 more will be sent next week.

Detective Love, of the Panhandle route, will be transferred to the Cleveland and Pittsburg road, this week.

Children's day was generally observed in the city, yesterday. The programs were good and attracted large crowds.

The Seachrist family held their first reunion Sunday afternoon at Columbiana, when 219 guests were present.

A lot of ware was shipped to the Oxford Orphan asylum, Oxford, N. C., this morning. The order was a large one.

Burford Brothers presented the firemen with a box of cigars and a check, this morning, for their service at the fire.

Saturday was a good day at the freight station. Twenty cars were loaded at the local sheds and 10 were unloaded.

Marshall Johnson is in Parkersburg attending the trial of the supposed counterfeiters. He left on the Virginia Saturday evening.

Mrs. Martha Trainer, of St. John street, yesterday afternoon was overcome by heat while attending the funeral of Mrs. C. B. Ogden.

The Knights of the Golden Eagle observed Decoration yesterday. Five graves were decorated, three in Spring Grove and two in Riverview.

Joe Smith was bound over to court Saturday afternoon in the sum of $200. He will be taken to Lisbon tomorrow unless the necessary bail is procured.

In his sermon at the First Presbyterian church, last night, Doctor Lee condemned flower thieves and spoke against Sunday concerts at Rock Spring.

Alvin H. Bulger went to Allegheny this afternoon to see Secretary Charles. That gentleman recognized his brother when he reached the hospital this morning.

But four offenders were before the mayor this morning. Colonel Parker paid $6.75 and John Moren put up $6.60. Bill Quinn and Jack Bailey failed to find the necessary $6.60 and are still lingering.

The backers of several prize fighters are in the city and from the outlook it seems that a fight will be pulled off near this place within a week or 10 days. They are not the parties who were here a month ago.

Saturday evening a picture agent caused consternation in an uptown poker room. He stumbled and fell, and the inmates thinking the police were at hand left the room, the majority of them walking over the agent.

Saturday afternoon a man was seen to put a small boy over the fence at the Bradshaw property, Fourth street, in order that he might obtain a buttonhole bouquet. A poor example to set the youngster, and a case for the police.

The Chester company have arranged to run cars tomorrow morning every 10 minutes, and in the afternoon trains made up of three or four cars will be run on the same schedule. Indications point to a large crowd at the library picnic.

PLUNDER OF PALACES

LOOTED ARTICLES AT QUEEN VICTORIA'S ROYAL RESIDENCES.

The Spoils of African and Indian Kings at Windsor Castle—The Crown of the Emperor of Abyssinia and the Kohinoor Diamond.

Queen Victoria is the most thoroughly respectable and the most God fearing of all the rulers of the earth, yet there is no person in the world who receives and retains under his roof a larger amount of stolen property. Windsor castle is filled from cellar to garret with loot and plunder of every kind, and the things for which she has no room there are distributed among her palaces at Osborne, Balmoral and in London. European wars and conflicts among civilized nations are not very profitable in this respect, and, in spite of the firm conviction to the contrary which prevails among the masses of the French people, there is not a single looted French clock to be found in any of the palaces of the emperor of Germany, the only bit of plunder which the old kaiser carried back with him to Berlin after the close of the war of 1870 being a small candlestick belonging to the palace of Versailles, of which he had made use throughout his stay, and which in former days had been similarly used by King Louis XIV of France. At the time of the old emperor's death in 1888 it was found on the little table beside his bedside at Berlin.

England's wars during the last 60 years, however, have been mostly with Asiatic and African potentates, and on the strength of the plea that it was necessary to "give the savages a lesson which they would remember" Queen Victoria's troops almost invariably have made it a point of sacking the palaces of the enemy's ruler, and it was lucky indeed for him if they did not burn his domicile to the ground. In order to avoid any awkward questions or remonstrances, the pick of the plunder always has been presented to her majesty, certain minor pieces being reserved for the Prince of Wales and for the cabinet ministers of the day.

It is thus that the queen has come into possession of the Kohinoor diamond, the most valuable in existence, which formerly belonged to the rulers of the Indian kingdom of Punjab. Priceless porcelain, silks, jade and cloisonne enamel represent her share in the loot of the summer palace of the emperor of China in 1864. At Windsor, too, are to be found the crown of Emperor Theodore of Abyssinia, taken after the storming of his stronghold of Magdala; the gold bracelets, amulets, collar and diadem of the two kings of Ashanti; while quite recently there have arrived at Windsor a large quantity of beautifully carved elephants' tusks, found in and about the palace of the African king of Benin when his capital was captured last spring by an English expeditionary force under Admiral Rawson.

India, of course, is largely represented in the collection of plunder at Windsor castle, and some of the finest pieces of plate and jeweled ornaments, including a superb tiger's head composed entirely of rubies, sapphires and diamonds, have come to her majesty from the treasure house of this or that once powerful oriental potentate, whose dominions she has annexed during the course of her threescore years' reign.

Queen Victoria probably would feel horrified at the idea of accepting any article of value that had been stolen from a European sovereign (barring the sultan). But somehow or other the potentates and rulers of Asia and of Africa seemed to her to be perfectly fair game, people whom it is quite Christian to plunder and to deprive of their most treasured possessions.

It is inconsistent and not quite in accordance with the teachings of the Bible, but, after all, it is in keeping with what her ancestors did before her, for on state occasions the great sideboard in the Waterloo gallery of Windsor castle is weighted down with vast quantities of gold and silver plate, much of which was originally destined and even used for sacramental purposes of the church and which constituted part of the plunder of those British buccanniers and pirates of the Elizabethan and Stuart era who roamed the seas in search of Spain's treasure ships, plundering and sacking the cities and churches of what used to be known in those days as the Spanish main.—Marquis de Fontenoy in Chicago Record.

Following Precedent.

"I'm too practical to do as heroes do in books, Miss Slight, so I'll just ask you bluntly, will you be my wife?"
"No, thank you, Mr. Terse. I myself don't believe in those silly, bookish notions, and as the silly heroines always say yes, why, I'll tell you bluntly, no, sir, I won't."—Philadelphia North American.

It was the belief of Livingstone that nearly all lions were "left handed." He watched them closely, and when they desired to strike a fierce blow they always used the left paw.

The popular belief that the sap of trees goes down into the roots in winter and rises again in the spring is false.

D. M. OGILVIE & CO.

"Matchless" Hosiery.

A new lot within the last few days. Those goods need no recommendation to people who have used them, but for fear you haven't been buying hose as good we mention them. At 25c fast black, 3-thread sole, double heel and toes in black, black with white feet, ox blood, tan, brown and cream color. Better goods and the same as have sold at 50c per pair, at 3 pairs for $1, just 3 pairs in a box, and we guarantee satisfaction. Cheaper hose in ladies at 10c, in all colors, and black at 15c, or 2 pairs for 25c.

Children's hose, fast black, in ribbed and plain goods, at 10c, 15c and 25c. Boys' heavy hose, such as will stand the hard wear a boy gives, at 10c, 15c and 25c. Men's half hose at 10c, 15c and 25c, in all sizes and colors. Men's three-quarter hose, fast black, 25c.

Summer Dress Goods.

PLAIN WHITE LAWNS at 6½c, 8c, 10c, 12½c, and up to 40c a yard.

DIMITIES, white, in checks and stripes, at 10c, and up to 35c.

NAINSOOKS in checks and stripes, at 5c, and all prices up to 25c. Plain white ORGANDIES at 25c, 50c and 75c. Nainsooks at 12½c, 18c, 25c and 75c per yard.

EMBROIDERIES, narrow and wide, at prices from 5c to 50c.

IMPORTED ORGANDIES, pretty colorings, at $4.50 and $5 per pattern of 12 yards. Organdies, very nice goods, at 25c, dark and light colors.

DIMITIES and LAWNS at 15c and 18c.

Other wash goods in all the new colorings and styles at 5c, 10c and 12½c.

A Few Offerings.

SEPARATE SKIRTS that have been $5 and $6, including novelties, in brown, blue and black; also checks in all colors, at $3.75.

CRASH SUITS, latest styles, perfect fitting, and cheaper than you could make them, $5.

CRASH SKIRTS, of which we have sold a great many, well made, good fitting, latest style, $1.50.

NEW BELTS in red, green, black and white, at 25c, 30c and 50c.

SHIRT WAISTS, all the new things in Organdies, lawns and percale. Prices 50c, $1 and $1.25.

FANCY RIBBONS, cheaper than you have ever bought them. Almost all colors in wide ribbons, just the thing for trimming wash goods, etc., at 25c.

HENDERSON'S SUMMER CORSETS, all sizes, at 50c, not the kind generally offered at this price, but first class goods. Better ones at $1.

D. M. OGILVIE & CO.

WORTHY OF YOUR CONSIDERATION

Is this little picture. It illustrates the light running rotary shuttle. Let us sell you a Standard Sewing Machine, the cheapest because the best.

SMITH & PHILLIPS.

East Liverpool, Ohio.

PURE BLOOD

Our Sarsaparilla is the VERY BEST.

At 69 cents a Bottle.

Very Best Beef, Iron, And Wine,

Large Bottles 50 Cents,

At Will Reeds',

The Druggist.

A Liberal Discount

made to all our patrons and friends on all optical goods from now until July 10, at which time I leave for New York to further advance myself in the optical profession.

Have Your Eyes Examined by the latest appliance for correction of defective vision by the Prismo-meter.

Examination Free!

JNO. M. MCKINNEY,

Dr. of Ophthal.

Cameras

Kodak, Premo's, Quad, Dry Plates, Solutions, Etc.,

Everything used in Amateur Photography.

Hodson's Drug Store,

BROADWAY.

Solid Spoons

Silver

Pearl Handled Knives and Forks and Sterling Silver Novelties at...

Wade's,

The Jeweler.

Dr. Geo. D. Arnum,

Surgeon Dentist,

Specialties: Crown and Bridge Work, and Preservation of the Natural Teeth.

Syndicate Bldg., Sixth St.